MINOR OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE REPORTED IN STRIKE SECTIONS

Big Sugar Refinery in State of Siege as Longshoremen Picket Plant and Citizens Form Street Patrol—Sailors' Walkout Not to Spread to Pacific Coast Cargo Vessels

CROCKETT, Cal., March 13 (AP).—The big California Hawaiian sugar refinery was in a state of siege today, as nearly 300 pickets of the International Longshoremen's Association blocked entrance to non-union workers, and a citizens' "peace committee" patrolled the streets armed with clubs and tear gas bombs.

Several fist fights were reported to the sheriff's office at Martinez, and every available deputy was hurried to the scene to keep order.

William Tyler, vice-president of the California & Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, denied flatly that there was any strike.

Officials of the longshoremen's union said there was a walkout of the sugar company warehouse employees belonging to the I.L.A. about 150, they said, who quit in protest over an election of the warehousemen which went against them.

CART STRIKERS OFF TO PRISON

Havana Government Starts Rounding Up Those Responsible for Troubles

HAVANA, March 13 (AP).—With a general threatening strike which has been threatening it apparently broken, President Carlos Mendive's Government today started rounding up those it believed responsible for its troubles.

The familiar sound of street car gongs and omnibus horns rang through streets that echoed on Tuesday night to rifle and pistol fire, as most lines of business returned to operation approaching normal.

Police carted hundreds of strikers, among them many Government employees, off to police stations and prisons in army trucks, and it was learned that fifty or more suspected revolutionary leaders were held at Cabana fortress.

VIGOROUS REPRESSION
The seeming collapse of the strike movement, which began several weeks ago with the walkout of an estimated 300,000 students and teachers, came after the Mendive Government, supported by Army Commander Fulgencio Batista, exchanged its policy of diplomatic negotiation for vigorous repression.

Its steps, punctuated by frequent outbreaks of terrorism which have left fourteen dead and dozens injured since Saturday, included suspension of the constitution, declaration of an emergency "state of war," appointment of military governors for all provinces, promulgation of laws providing the death penalty for terrorism and sabotage, and, on Tuesday night, an order requiring all Havana Province residents to be off the streets after 9 p.m.

LOADS MATERIAL FOR AIR BASES

Ship to Carry Plywood Houses for Erection on Pacific Isles for New Service

SEATTLE, March 13 (AP).—The steamship North Haven started loading anti-proofed plywood houses and other building material today for the five bases to be erected on islands for the Pan-American Airways projected trans-Pacific mail and passenger plane service.

She will sail Sunday for San Francisco to load food and technical supplies, said David Girdwood, who chartered the vessel from the Northland Transportation Company to the Airways Company.

AN EARLY ALARM IS RAISED IN NEW BANK

TORONTO, March 13 (CP).—The burglar alarm in the new Bank of Canada office rang this afternoon, and city police and private protection officers swarmed to the building. K. Frederickson, manager, said someone of the staff inadvertently pressed an alarm-button, and the reinforcements dispersed.

Cowling That Endangered Speed King

Sir Malcolm Campbell, front centre, with his back turned to the camera, explaining to his mechanics how the cowling on the speeding Bluebird, which can be seen in the picture, tore loose, flooding the cockpit with fumes, during his speed record attempt. He plans a short test run today to tune up for another speed dash.

Tariff Board Authorized To Investigate Bearing Of Duties on Car Prices

Disparity Between Canada and U.S. Rates Causes Government Concern

INQUIRY TO CONDUCT BROAD INVESTIGATION

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—Finance Minister E. N. Rhodes today formally authorized Chairman George H. Sedgewick of the Tariff Board, to undertake "at your earliest convenience" an investigation into the automotive industry in Canada, "particularly as regards the bearing thereupon of customs and excise duties or taxes."

The reference is a broad one, embracing "the matter of the relationship of the production of parts to the larger industry, and of both to the general consuming interest."

DISPARITY TOO GREAT
The action follows a decision reached by the Government more than a month ago when motor car manufacturers in Canada were advised by Mr. Rhodes that the disparity between the price of cars to the consumer in Canada in contrast with the price of similar cars in the United States was "giving the Government grave concern." He then stated that the Government contemplated taking the necessary steps to remedy the situation.

IN PUBLIC INTEREST
Stating that in his opinion such an investigation was "in the public interest," Mr. Rhodes instructed the chairman that the inquiry "should have regard for the principles and operations of drawbacks for domestic consumption, as well as for cost of materials as content and costs of distribution; and it should endeavor to appraise the various factors which determine the prices at which motor vehicles shall be sold at retail in Canada."

DEPENS PACT WITH CHINA

Grief-Stricken "Indians" Serve as Pallbearers to Victim of Game

BROCKTON, Mass., March 13 (AP).—The "Indians" who burned nine-year-old Edward Smith "at the stake" last Saturday, carried him to his grave today. The youngsters, whose ages ranged from eight to eleven, wept openly.

Overcoming their first bitterness at the tragic termination of the fatal game, during which Eddie and a companion were lashed to a tree around which grass and leaves had been heaped and then set on fire, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith, the boy's parents, yielded to the tearful entreaties of the grief-stricken "Indians" and granted their request to serve as pallbearers.

PROPOSE TWO INSTITUTIONS

Provincial Home for Aged and New Sanitarium at Coquitlam to Be Set Up

Bills to provide for establishment of a provincial home for the aged, and a provincial tubercular sanitarium at Coquitlam were introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir. Both contain contemplated assessment of municipalities for patients sent to these institutions.

The municipality in which was situated the patient's domicile would be charged $12.5 a day in respect to the sanitarium proposed at Coquitlam and 50c a day for inmates at the home for the aged, it is set out.

Three other bills were introduced by the same Minister, one of which provides for self-regulation of registered nurses in British Columbia under a new Registered Nurses Act, with variation in present regulation as to registration, examination and on other points, with repeal of the existing statute.

LUCKY WHEN TRAINS MEET

None Seriously Hurt in Head-On Collision on Canadian Pacific Railway Line

CARADOC, Ont., March 13 (CP).—A Canadian Pacific Railway's passenger train and a freight train collided head-on here at 9:01 o'clock tonight, causing injury to Engineer Malcolm D. McTaggart, of London, Ont., and shock to six passengers.

Although several cars were derailed, none was overturned. The cause of the collision was unknown late tonight, and was under investigation.

The injuries to Engineer McTaggart, who was in charge of the passenger train, were described as not serious.

GIVEN A SHAKING
The passengers shaken up were, according to reports, in the third car of the train.

The six were: R. A. Sloan, of Winnipeg; D. S. Norman, New York City; R. Barrow, New York City; Mrs. C. C. Suehla, Guelph, Ont.; E. K. Smith, North Bay, Ont., and a Mrs. Simon, of Montreal.

None of the six required hospital treatment.

The passenger train was No. 37, a local running between Toronto and Windsor. The freight was No. 74, out of Windsor.

An official statement from the C.P.R. tonight was to the effect that the railroad line would be clear shortly after midnight.

Caradoc is about sixteen miles northwest of London, Ont.

FALLS HEIR TO LARGE FORTUNE

Minto School Principal Becomes Suddenly and Unexpectedly Wealthy

CUMBERLAND, March 13. — Claude Young, principal at Minto Public School, just outside the City of Cumberland, has fallen heir to a fortune estimated at $100,000 through the death of his mother, which took place in England in January of this year.

Mr. Young, who is about forty-two years of age, left his home at the early age of sixteen and has had practically no communication with his family since leaving. He has been in various parts of this Dominion, working at different occupations. He put himself through the necessary course for a teacher and has been at Minto for the past three years.

He was unaware of any money in the family, and the windfall has come as a big surprise. He is a bachelor and lives in a small house by himself in the Minto Valley.

PRESIDENT OF INDUSTRIES

LONDON, March 13 (CP-Havas).—Sir Francis Joseph, well-known British industrialist and financier, was nominated president of the Federation of British Industries today.

If the action is taken, it was said, France would invoke the Rome accord and the Franco-British declaration at London in support of her move to keep the Reich from giving her air force official status.

These understandings include the denial to any power of the right to modify any armaments agreement without the consent of other signatories. This denial, it is understood here, was intended to apply primarily to Germany, whose military forces the Peace Treaty restricted.

IN CONSULTATION
French officials were in consultation with Rome and London to see what could be done in the face of the forthright announcement of General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, German Air Minister, that he would

PREMIER BACK IN THE CHAIR

Defends White Paper When Presiding Over Cabinet Session

LONDON, March 13 (AP).—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, tired and showing the ravages of the severe cold that has kept him abed the last week, returned to duty today to authorize another denial of reports that he is about to resign.

Nevertheless, rumors continued that the veteran leader's retirement is likely, with general reconstruction of the Cabinet following.

The Prime Minister presided at today's Cabinet session and struck out vigorously in defence of the "White Paper," which he wrote to accompany increased estimates for British defence in 1935.

A PEACE DOCUMENT
An old fighter for the cause of peace, the Prime Minister characterized the "White Paper" as a "peace document."

"Peace is written on its forehead; peace is its concluding thought; peace is its purpose throughout."

Despite his physician's orders, Mr. MacDonald has been working very hard of late, and this has had its effect. His health is far from that robustness which he hoped his last year's Canadian vacation would bring.

Informed quarters say the Cabinet members likely to be involved in the rumored shake-up, if and when it comes, are James H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions; Sir Edward Hilton Young, Minister of Health; and Oliver Stanley, Minister of Transport, with the veteran Winston Churchill possibly coming into the Government.

One possibility mentioned is that MacDonald might exchange posts with Stanley Baldwin, Lord President of the Council.

MACHINERY IN DANGER OF HITCH

Refusal of Uruguay to Apply Arms Embargo on Paraguay, Bewilders League Committee

GENEVA, March 13 (CP-Havas).—The League of Nations put forth every effort today to avert a breakdown in its machinery for settling the Paraguay-Bolivia Chaco War, as Uruguay refused to apply the arms embargo on Paraguay, and the consultative committee adjourned amid bewildering divergences.

The Uruguayan delegate said his country would not apply the embargo on Paraguay so long as neighboring countries did not apply it to Bolivia.

Resolution Against Bridge Over Fraser Finds Support Here

Over 1,000 Persons Back Up Dr. Lyle Telford in Stand Denouncing Provincial Government for Failing to Keep Election Promises

MORE than 1,000 persons rose to a standing vote in the City Temple last night, in favor of a resolution, introduced by Dr. Lyle Telford, of Vancouver, which denounced the Provincial Government for alleged inefficiency, failing to fulfil election promises and voicing resentment against the proposed new bridge across the Fraser River at New Westminster.

The resolution, endorsed by several large meetings on the Mainland, reads as follows: "Resolved that this meeting go on record as strongly denouncing the present Liberal Government of this province on account of its inefficiency, lack of fulfillment of its election pledges, especially its failure to provide work and wages, and particularly resent the building of the new bridge at New Westminster. Further, we request that copies of this resolution be sent to the Lieutenant-Governor and Premier T. D. Pattullo."

Dr. Telford spoke strongly against the proposed bridge, saying it was "just a political scandal of the worst."

Actor of the Screen Finds Himself Cast In Unpleasant Role

Arrested by Real Policeman for Smuggling Stolen Bracelet—London Banker and New York Society Girl Figure in Plot

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP).—George K. Arthur, motion picture actor, stepped off a ship's gangplank into the waiting arms of a detective today and found himself suddenly cast in the leading role of an international police drama.

He was arraigned on a charge of smuggling a stolen bracelet into the United States.

Federal Judge Francis Caffey held him in $2,500 bail when he pleaded not guilty and the bond was furnished by a surety company.

SENSATIONAL SCENARIO
As related by Detective Walter Miller, who made the arrest, the story behind the smuggling charge had all the elements of Hollywood scenario, including a Briti- banker as the victim, a New York society girl as the innocent dupe, and Cannes as the back-drop.

Miller said Scotland Yard operatives, United States Department of Justice agents and New York police had reconstructed the story as follows:

Arthur, who gave his age as

Commendation Is Given Objects of Organization For Tourist Development

Additional Questions on Tourist Trade

The opportunity of having answers given to relevant questions concerning the Tourist Trade Development Association's work and purposes has been readily accepted by the public. Below are given several of the many queries which were presented yesterday for answer from the stage at the big mass meeting on Friday night at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Douglas A. Balfour pertinently asks: Why should persons with sufficient income, who don't like crowds and don't want tourists here, be asked to enthrone over the five-year plan?

W. H. Dawes puts forward this query: Is not the high cost of transportation for passengers and automobiles between the Mainland and Vancouver Island one of the greatest hindrances to the development of tourist travel—and what can be done about it?

Alf Dendoff puts a personal question: Why did Mr. Eslick, with his international qualifications, identify himself with the tourist movement in such a small place as Victoria?

H. M. Stone puts the following: At a mass meeting at Nanaimo some weeks ago Mr. Eslick was reported to have told the citizens that Nanaimo was the logical place to choose as headquarters for the Tourist Trade Development Association. Has there been any change in this attitude? I believe it is of first importance to citizens here to know if the headquarters will be anywhere else than in Victoria?

Pass School Accounts

General accounts of $4,349.39, building expenses of $434.95 and summary accounts of $4,784.34 were passed by the City School Board last evening. It was decided to purchase a new gas range for the high school cafeteria at a cost of $209.

CHANGE IN TAX SYSTEM URGED

Thomas Bradshaw Thinks Collection Plan of Installments Would Aid City

Payment of taxes in three equal installments, one on April 15, another on July 15 and a final one on October 15, was advocated by Thomas Bradshaw, Toronto financial expert, Mayor David Leeming disclosed yesterday. Mr. Bradshaw held a camera conference with the mayor and several aldermen Tuesday afternoon.

The city adviser recommended that the council carry on its programme on the same basis as last year and put behind it the matters which could not be handled. He also advised the council to mark time until the 1936 provincial budget in which Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, has promised to deal with municipal problems.

Continuance of interest allowance on prepaid taxes was supported by Mr. Bradshaw, but his suggestion of consolidation of tax arrears did not meet with favor. Mr. Bradshaw will draw up and mail a report from Toronto, which he believes will aid the city in solving its many financial problems.

LIVING IS ASSURED IN RUSSIA STATES FERNIE MEMBER

"Everyone willing to work is put to something and is assured of a living," declared Thomas Uphill, M.P.P. for Fernie, in an address on "Russia," delivered last night at a meeting of the British Columbia Joint Organization on Unemployment held in the Chamber of Commerce.

Wages were paid on the quantity and quality of the work produced. Foremen and officials received graded increase over the workers.

Although marriage laws there were more flexible than here, divorces and separations were much fewer, said Mr. Uphill. Mr. Uphill gave detailed accounts of the various cities and towns he visited during the course of a trip to Russia recently. His address was similar to that delivered at a recent Gyo Club luncheon.

CAPITAL CITY LODGE

Capital City Lodge, Loyal True Blues, No. 303, will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. The officers who attended Grand Lodge last week will give a report, and all members are asked to attend.

The Mayor yesterday received a telegram from Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, and the minister in charge of the Dominion Government's new travel bureau, Rt. Rev. J. H. MacDonald, Bishop of Victoria, also forwarded to the Mayor a most encouraging letter, as did Rev. Rabbi Marcus Berner and other well-known citizens.

VALUABLE WORK

"I have followed the efforts of your tourist organization in Victoria to promote and develop this important industry," Hon. Mr. Manion said in his telegram. "Please accept my warmest congratulations upon the success of your campaign to date. I believe you have adopted a progressive policy and your cooperation has been of exceptional value to the work now being undertaken by the Canadian Travel Bureau. It is most reassuring to find that you personally are so concerned with the tourist development of Vancouver Island. You may count upon my department and myself for every possible assistance."

His Lordship the Bishop of Victoria in expressing his regret at not being able to attend the mass meeting on Friday night at the Royal Victoria Theatre adds, "I sincerely hope your meeting will prove the encouraging success which it so well deserves to be."

"People could be excused a few years ago for doubting the wisdom of going to any expense or trouble to secure such trade. But that day is past, and there is no longer any question about the enormous amount of money spent by tourists every year. However, we cannot expect them to come here in large numbers, even though we have climate and scenery unsurpassed in any other country, unless we make the attractions of our island known first of all, then invite them to come to our shores, give them a warm welcome when they do come, and prove by our courtesy, hospitality and hospitality to them while here that we are interested in their welfare."

SOUND INVESTMENT

"Your programme may call for some expensive advertising, but it will be a sound investment for the country at large. There is something else that will be called for which is even of more importance, viz., the co-operation of all the people of the island. I trust that none will be so lacking in public spirit as to neglect assisting in every possible way."

H. Leo Dolan, director of the Canadian Travel Bureau, Ottawa, wired to T. H. Eslick, general secretary of the Tourist Trade Development Association, commendation for the fine work being done by the association and by the Victoria Publicity Bureau. He said:

"My best wishes for the success of your progressive campaign to increase the tourist trade to Victoria and Vancouver Island. Mayor Leeming, George I. Warren and you are doing a fine job. Only the most earnest effort on the part of the citizens of Victoria, however, can your campaign be successful."

"Canada today has become fully cognizant of the importance of the tourist industry and Victoria is adopting the best methods to share in the increasing business anticipated for 1935."

"You will be interested to know that resort and travel organizations throughout United States have informed us that inquiries for Canadian travel information are greater now than at any time since 1929."

"The Canadian Travel Bureau is delighted with your co-operative effort and places the services of our department at your disposal. Congratulations upon the aggressive policy you have initiated."

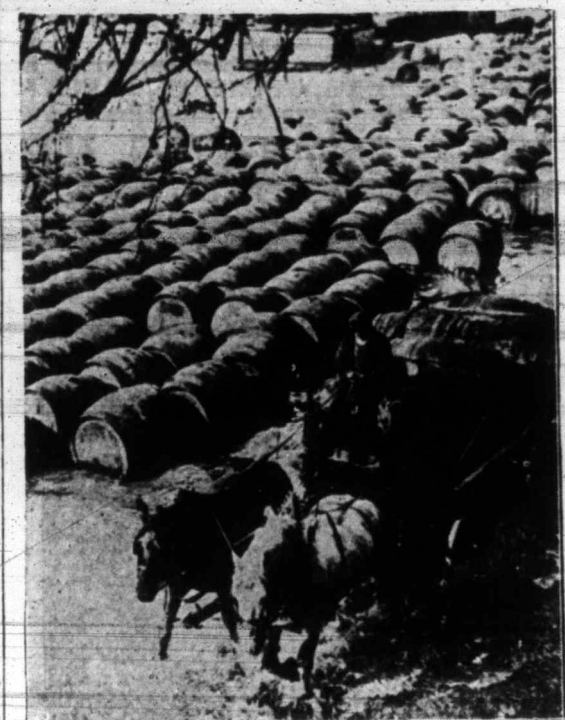

R. C. Malcolm, president of Victoria Lodge, No. 2, B.P.O.E., in a letter to Mayor Leeming remarks: "I am strongly of the opinion citizens in all walks of life in Victoria should do everything in their power to assist the tourist association in developing this desirable asset to its fullest."

IMPORTANT STEP

J. Morse Hart, president of the Rotary Club, and prominent business man, in an appreciative letter to Mayor Leeming, thanks and congratulates him for the movement that he initiated. "Regarding your announcement of a 'Back to Prosperity' mass meeting on next Friday," Mr. Hart adds, "I would quite frankly say that this, in my opinion, is the biggest step taken yet in the movement you are launching. My reason for this statement is that the average man on the street is still wondering what it is all about, and to get the fullest co-operation on a project of this magnitude, it is essential that the public be fully informed—be thoroughly sold on the idea that by united action tremendous things can, and will be accomplished."

Rev. Rabbi Marcus Berner has also high praise for the objectives of the movement. In a letter to Mayor Leeming regretting that religious duties will prevent him from appearing on the platform on Friday, he says: "I can assure you that I have the greatest admiration for the energy, thought and enthusiasm you have put forth personally, and aroused in others on behalf of the development of this island's tourist trade possibilities. I believe in the aims and purposes of your movement, and hope every citizen will support it."

HENRY JONES PASSES AWAY

Former Juvenile Officer Dies
in Hospital After Prolonged Illness

Henry Jones, 1290 Topaz Avenue, who for the last seven years was Victoria juvenile officer, passed away in Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday after a prolonged illness. For many years Mr. Jones was ill, but he continued to work for the city police department until a few months ago when he tendered his resignation. He was removed to hospital several weeks later and his condition steadily grew worse.

Of a cheerful disposition, Mr. Jones enjoyed a wide circle of friends and was a favorite on the police force. He will long be remembered for his good work among youngsters.

Police Chief Thomas Heatley, in paying a last tribute to Mr. Jones, said his recent retirement, necessitated by ill health, was a serious loss to the juvenile correction department of the police force.

Born in Leominster, Herefordshire, England, fifty years ago, Mr. Jones came to Victoria twenty-two years ago and joined the police department as a constable on June 10, 1916. He served overseas during the Great War. Mr. Jones was an active member of Court Northern Light, A.O.F.

Besides his widow, he is survived by one son, Victor, at home; one daughter, Mrs. G. Garrison, of Seattle; his father in England, and a sister, Mrs. T. Clayton, also in England.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 2 o'clock in the chapel of Sands Mortuary, Ltd. Rev. N. E. Smith will officiate, and the remains will be laid at rest in Colwood Burial Park.

Technical Addresses Fill Second Day of Institute's Meeting

Papers Presented Before Mining Men at Winnipeg Dealing With Increased Activity in Canadian Mining—Old Friends Foregather

WINNIPEG, March 13 (CP).—Second day of the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy was almost wholly devoted to technical papers.

Development of the mineral industry in Manitoba was dealt with by J. F. Wright, Winnipeg, who declared the industry had made greater progress in the last ten years than in the thirty-five preceding years.

CHARGES TO BE PROBED

Chief Justice of New Brunswick to Head Investigation Into R.C.M.P.

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—A royal commission, headed by the Chief Justice of New Brunswick, will investigate charges made by Hon. Peter Veniot, former Postmaster-General, against the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The announcement was made in the House today by Justice Minister Hugh Guthrie.

The former Postmaster-General has charged the Mounties used third degree methods against witnesses in New Brunswick and destroyed food from a seized rum vessel illegally and within the presence of men and women on relief. The justice minister said the royal commission will convene immediately, and Mr. Veniot said he was prepared to put his seat at stake if he did not prove his charges.

SAYS CHARGES SERIOUS

The justice minister said Mr. Veniot had made serious reflections on the New Brunswick detachment of the R.C.M.P. Last year he claimed third degree methods had been adopted against witnesses, and that patrol boats were moored to wharves while smugglers operated a short distance away.

This year, continued Mr. Guthrie, the former Postmaster-General charged third degree measures had been used on a prisoner named William and other charges relating to the vessel Paul T.

Investigations of Mr. Veniot's charges last year "showed the allegations were entirely without foundation," Mr. Guthrie said. Turning to the vessel Paul T., Mr. Guthrie said it was seized under provisions of the New Brunswick Liquor Law, and the Provincial Attorney-General transferred the case to the Federal Department of National Revenue.

FOLLOWED INSTRUCTIONS

The Province waived all claims to the vessel and its liquor cargo, and the police were instructed to destroy them. This was done, said Mr. Guthrie, and the ship's stores were destroyed as well. They were valued at $44, some of the food having been condemned as unfit.

Last night, Mr. Veniot said the food was destroyed at Shippegan, N.B. in the presence of 150 persons, many of whom were on relief. To-day the justice minister said there were fifteen adults and three children in the crowd, and the New Brunswick authorities claimed none of them were on relief at the time.

"Exaggerated ideas have gone out" in relation to the Paul T., said Mr. Guthrie. The R.C.M.P. had a high reputation, and in order to clear up the charges a royal commission would be named headed by the Chief Justice of New Brunswick.

TRAIL MINING MAN HONORED

Dr. S. G. Blaylock Awarded Medal for Contribution to Mineral Industry

WINNIPEG, March 13 (CP).—Selwyn Gwilym Blaylock, thirty-seven years ago a junior chemist in a British Columbia smelting plant, today was given one of the highest honors within the realm of Canada's mineral industry.

At the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, of which he is president, Dr. Blaylock was awarded the institute's platinum medal for "distinguished contribution to Canada's mineral industry."

Dr. Blaylock, vice-president and general manager of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company at Trail, B.C., was selected for the platinum medal by five past presidents of the institute.

RECEIVES BRUCE MEDAL

The institute awarded the Randolph Bruce Gold Medal to James Gordon Ross, general manager of Asbestos Corporation, Limited, Theftford Mines, Quebec, for outstanding services to the mineral industry.

Patrick Neenan, of Bissett, Man., received the institute's medal "for bravery"—the first time it has been awarded. In the Central Manitoba Mines, in 1930, he and a helper were leaving a pit after having laid a round of blasts. His companion fell down a ladder and Neenan returned to carry him to safety, the blasts discharging as he was doing so. Neenan was severely injured, but the helper just bruised.

The Flin Flon, God's Lake, San Antonio and Central Manitoba Mines had given the greatest boost, but throughout the whole of Central and Northeastern Manitoba, prospectors were seeking deposits.

COLORFUL HISTORY

R. E. Phelan, general manager of the Hudson Bay Mining & Smelting Company's plant at Flin Flon, and several of the company's senior officers, sketched the plant's brief but colorful history.

It began when Tom Creighton, a prospector of The Pas, discovered a huge ore deposit in 1914, but until 1923 no company deemed the find would warrant the enormous expenditures necessary before production could begin.

Nearly $1,000,000 was expended before its backers decided Flin Flon could be worked at a profit, but today 1,500 employees earned $2,000,000 annually, and railways gained an additional $1,000,000 for freight haul.

NEW PHASE OF INDUSTRY

Prospect of a new phase of mineral industry in Northern Ontario was outlined to the meeting by A. E. Hilder, manager-director of the General Refractory Products, Ltd., Toronto. His company plans erecting a plant at Kapuskasing to produce refractory bricks and other materials from extensive deposits of fire clay and silica sand discovered fifty-seven miles north of Kapuskasing.

Edward Stanpey, Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., read a paper urging investigation into possibility of procuring sand areas in Western Canada for moulding purposes, while A. M. Richmond, Vancouver, discussed industrial minerals activity in British Columbia.

T. L. Stanton, of the Dominion Department of Mines, offered an interim report on the Sturgeon River find.

The meeting rooms were not filled, the day being "rainy day." Colorful figures greeted and yawned of "prospect" days.

A GREAT NEW FIND

Colonel Jim Cornwall, "Peace River Jim" to his friends, enthusiastically told all of a great new gold find at Lake Athabasca. Possibly the most storied prospector, trapper, legislator and miner of them all, Jim could not resist why the institute had not held its meeting right up on the shores of the Athabasca.

The meeting will continue tomorrow, when President Blaylock will deliver an address on the "co-operation committee" system that he has developed at the Consolidated Mining & Smelting plant at Trail, in preference to trade unionism. A banquet on Thursday evening will conclude the meet.

Echoes From The Gallery

Reporting in the Legislature yesterday, the fisheries committee proposed Government action to permit white settlers on British Columbia rivers an equivalent privilege of taking and using salmon for food as enjoyed by Indians under Federal statutes. A second recommendation asked revision of cannery licences to protect the interests of the small operator, now allegedly shut out from fishery enterprise. Dr. J. J. Gillis introduced the report.

The private bills committee was enlarged during the day by the official addition of S. S. McKee (Liberal, Point Grey), on the recommendation of A. M. Manson, K.C., chairman of the committee. Nearly all Vancouver members are now on the committee, which is considering Vancouver charter amendments.

At the evening sitting, Hon. G. S. Pearson renewed a warm desire of the Economic Council, the technical staff of which, he said, had rendered invaluable service to the Province. Under consideration is the question of whether the council will be continued in its present form, or as a resident technical staff to be made part of the provincial service permanently, under Dr. W. A. Carrothers.

Mr. Pearson announced Federal action to spend $25,000 this year in British Columbia on geological survey work in the southeastern and central ridges, out of a total vote of $60,000 for Canada. British Columbia mining reports, he said, will be rendered earlier than previously in an interim form, and will be made more available to the public.

VICTORIA'S BIRTHDAY

It was on the afternoon of March 14, 1843 that Chief Factor James Douglas arrived off Clover Point aboard the Hudson's Bay Company's steamer Beaver to establish Fort Victoria on the harbor of Camosack or Camosun. He had previously made a minute examination of the country between Sooke and Gonzales Point, seeking an eligible location for a trading depot. On consideration of his report Sir George Simpson and the Council of the Company in Rupert's Land had instructed him to proceed to the Harbor of Camosack and there construct a fort. In compliance with his instructions he proceeded overland to Puget Sound from Fort Vancouver, and at Fort Nisqually embarked aboard the paddle steamer Beaver, and after visiting New Dungeness crossed the Straits to Clover Point. The next day he landed and selected a situation for the stockade, and on March 16 arranged with the Indians to give assistance in the work of construction.

So the actual founding of Victoria was commenced. Incidentally, it might be here stated, that at no time was the post officially known by any other name than that of Victoria. In the record of the council meeting, where it is set down that the place was to "be called Fort Victoria." There was a definite purpose in this selection of the name of the young sovereign of Great Britain, just as there had been in earlier giving Captain Vancouver's name to the trade headquarters on the Columbia. Both places were named in anticipation of the expected boundary line dispute.

It was the uncertainty of the boundary settlement that led to the establishment of Fort Victoria. As early as 1818 the 49th parallel was suggested as the international division, and this was repeated from time to time. In a letter to the British Government in 1825, Sir J. H. Pelly had urged an early settlement, saying:

"Under existing circumstances, I respectfully submit to your consideration whether it might not be advisable to endeavor to arrange a boundary line between Great Britain and the United States in that country West of the Rocky Mountains, more especially as the attention of Congress has been called to the subject, and in an American map, lately published, the line of Lat. 49 is continued from the Rocky Mountains to the seacoast and the country to the South of that line is described to be United States Territory, which at some future period might be made use of by the American Government. This line would deprive Great Britain of a valuable country now occupied and traded by the Hudson's Bay Company, and would occasion many practical inconveniences in carrying on the trade of the Country which would be left to us."

It was thus early appreciated by the Hudson's Bay Company that Great Britain might not be able to maintain the boundary at the Columbia River, and that the next possible line was the 49th parallel. If this was done, then it was essential that the Straits of Juan de Fuca be maintained as an open corridor to the Fraser River, the second great stream of the Coast. In order to support the British claim to this river, Fort Langley was established in 1827. If the 49th parallel was extended across Vancouver Island, then access to Fort Langley would have to be obtained via the North end of Vancouver Island and the rapid waterways between the Island and Mainland. It was therefore essential to maintain for Great Britain the whole of the Island, and in order to do so Fort Victoria was established; and the future Dominion was given an open door to the future great port of Vancouver.

It is fitting that these things should be remembered, and that tribute should be paid to the patriotism, courage and enterprise of the Empire builders of our community infancy.

THE KING'S CANCER FUND

The humanitarian spirit that is characteristic of His Majesty is shown in directing the good will of his people during the present year of celebration to a cancer research fund. This disease is perhaps the greatest menace to the physical well-being of his English-speaking subjects. The death rate stands high, in many areas at the top. For example, and not to go farther afield than our own Province, the deaths from cancer last year exceeded those from tuberculosis. In fact, outside the Indian population where tuberculosis is prevalent, cancer was twice as destructive. These local figures are corroborated by summaries from other districts. Diseases that become epidemic, such as smallpox, diphtheria and malaria, have been brought under control by quinine, vaccines and anti-toxins, but as cancer is not contagious and not due to any specific organism, these remedial agents cannot be utilized. In spite of an immense amount of research, the situation is that this dread disease continues to gnaw its way into the vitality of humanity.

The citizens of the Empire are called upon by their King to enlist in fighting this dragon. Investigators working under the Silver Jubilee Fund will pool their findings with those of other centres of research. Intensive study is bound to lead, the scientists believe, to a specific that will reduce the disease to its lowest possible limit. Meantime, the public must learn that even today cancer is a curable disease if treated early. Even in advanced stages it can be arrested. In a pamphlet issued by the Provincial Board of Health, Dr. Charles A. Dukes, president of the American College of Surgeons, states that "in a well-organized clinic in the past three years more than 1,000 advanced cases have been treated with definite arrestment in more than 800 cases; relief from pain has been attained and years added to the life of the patient." Through the world-wide clearing house of sound scientific knowledge on cancer it has been proved that surgery, X-ray and radium offer the most helpful treatment. There are no secret cures, no serum or injections of value.

This authority deprecates the fear and pessimism that is prevalent. This attitude is due, he thinks, largely to the fact that until recent years a diagnosis of cancer was rarely made until the disease was very far advanced. Consequently the diagnosis of cancer was popularly regarded as a death warrant. To safeguard against possible ill, medical attention should be called by the individual to any abnormal growth, any symptom of disorder such as ulcers, lumps and discharges. Hope must be created by the assurance that cancer in its early stages is curable. At the annual meeting of the American Society of Surgeons more than 16,000 cases of cured cancer were reported. It must be remembered, too, that the disease cannot be transmitted in any known way to another person. Granted intelligent attention by the public and increased efficiency in the use of surgery, X-ray and radium, the menace of cancer will be much lessened. Hope, too, may be entertained that it will soon take its place low down on the list of dangerous diseases.

DESERVING INSTITUTIONS

The joint appeal for funds being made by the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. is to support institutions which have a tonic effect in the life of any community. These bodies, which instill the spirit of service amongst the young, should be so widely known by their "initial" nomenclature as a tribute to the place they have come to occupy in the scheme of social welfare. It is not a service enforced by legislative enactment, but one available in such a way that the free spirit of manhood and womanhood may be maintained.

What these institutions offer is benefits that are physical, mental and ethical. Their activities are a steady force designed to inculcate and preserve morale. The length of time they have operated, the good they have done, the commendation they have won from every upbuilding force, constitute their claim for support. It should be only necessary to state these facts anew to ensure that their present appeal for funds, so that they may continue to carry on, will meet with the response that it deserves.

The Uxbridge society for the suppression of gossip has a most laudable purpose in view. To do away with scandal-mongering, it is necessary to develop human nature. It is only by enlarging the understanding that the heart becomes informed of its ideal relationship to fellow hearts. Such knowledge exorcises the spirit that batters on suspicions. Gossiping is a symptom of a lowered mentality. It is a disease, the antidote to which is new moral strength infused into the body politic. Everyone knows that gossiping does untold harm. It is a mental phase of human society still unexplored in the realm of medical science.

DESIRE

Set a bound to your desires; think not of how much others have, but of how much which they have you can do perfectly well without. Be not the slave of show or circumstance. Do not lose the present in vain perplexities about the future. If fortune favors you today, she may smile tomorrow; and when she lavishes her gifts upon you, cherish an humble heart, and so fortify yourself against her caprice. Keep a rein upon all your passions—upon covetousness above all; for once that has you within its clutch farewell for ever to the light heart, and the sleep that comes unbidden; to the open eye that drinks in delight from beauty and freshness and infinite variety of Nature; to the clouded mind that judges justly and serenely of men and things. Enjoy wisely, for then only you enjoy thoroughly. Mar not your life with a hopeless quarrel against destiny.—Horace.

TEMPTATION

To resist temptation once is not a sufficient proof of honesty. If a servant, indeed, were to resist the continued temptation of silver lying in a window, as some people let it lie, when he is sure his master does not know how much there is of it, he would give strong proof of honesty. But this is a proof to which you have no right to put a man. You know, humanly speaking, there is a degree of temptation which will overcome any virtue. Now, in so far as you approach temptation to a man, you do him an injury; and, if he is overcome, you share his guilt.—Dr. Johnson.

The more haste, ever the worst speed.

Haste trips up its own heels, fetters and stops itself.—Seneca.

Great men stand like towers in the city of God.

Note and Comment

By E. E. B. D.

The fools and the wise are equally harmless. It is the half-wise and the half-foolish who are most to be feared.—Goethe.

Not so long ago we were all proud of Vancouver and Vancouver did not consider itself very small potatoes. We were all proud of the position of Vancouver as the third city of Canada in point of population. To a certain extent the glory of Vancouver was reflected upon all the people of the province. The enviable position of Vancouver showed what could be done by the energy, the enterprise and the diligence in business of a resourceful population. But Vancouver threatens to throw us all down, to drag her civic credit in the dust, to throw ashes upon the heads of us all. We shall never be able to hold up our heads again and look the world in the face if Vancouver, led by a blind leader of the blind, should default and refuse to pay her creditors.

We say default and refuse to meet her contractual obligations. The ability of Vancouver to pay if she were moved by the will to pay. Politically, Vancouver may be bankrupt, but financially she cannot be in such a deplorable state as bankruptcy implies. The situation is serious, for if the chief of the province should default in his obligations, not only will the heads of the people be bowed in shame. The whole of the province will be discredited and the whole financial position of Canada will be affected.

In what manner shall this deplorable and dishonorable situation be met? We do not know, for in matters of finance and credit we are as a little child. What we do know is that those directly responsible and those in higher authority indirectly responsible should come together and in council determine what must be done. There seems to be no way of getting rid of the author and instigator of all the turmoil and mischief, for he is the elected representative of the people of Vancouver. But it should be possible to ignore him and act independently of him. If the Mayor of Vancouver were elected to be a representative of the people he was not elected on the assumption that he could become a dictator; that he could dictate to the Provincial Government and to the Dominion Government, ignore all governments if he could not scrap them, and set up a new economic system without material foundations, and indulge in experiments which are bound to be ruinous and disastrous.

Hitherto the evil which charlatans can do has been demonstrated in small ways. Owing to the difficulties of the times a way has been opened for charlatans to raise Old Nick in large ways. There always have been quacks who peddled their useless wares in the market places and sold their nostrums to the ignorant and the credulous. Today sovereign cures for all national ills are being offered to the multitude by such impostors as Luey Long and such dreamers as Major Douglas. When political leaders fall under the spell of such magicians they become fanatical in their adherence to the principles of Social Credit or any fantastic doctrine; but when individual credit, municipal credit, provincial credit and national credit are destroyed, let Social Creditors put their securities on the market and they will twiddle their thumbs a long time before anybody offers to buy them.

Militant cranks know all that; but they say money is trash or dross, and anybody can make it. "We shall issue our own money, secured as to its value by Social Credit." What is Social Credit if it is not individual credit, business credit, municipal credit, provincial credit and national credit? If all credit is destroyed, of what value are promises to pay issued against it? To establish Social Credit a municipal bank is to be opened in Vancouver. A municipal bank in Vancouver surely could not print paper money and use it as currency for the transaction of business. If it did any business at all it would have to do that, for it could hardly expect citizens with real money to deposit their savings in a bank destitute of securities and could give no guarantee for the payment of interest on deposits. Of course there will be no municipal bank established in Vancouver. The idea is as absurd as most of the ideas of the individual who is proposing it. But Vancouver's unique Mayor is as absurd in peculiar ideas as certain rodents are in the production of their own kind.

Like many people of Celtic origin, Mr. McGeer is governed more by his emotions than by his reason. He fell under the influence of the Oxford Group and used passages from the Bible as texts for spell-binding speeches. The pity of it is that the spell of the Social Credit expounders seems to have had more influence upon his political course and private conduct than the accepted evangel of the Oxford missionaries.

There must be some good in the human race or so many people would not be speaking to one another.

Toronto Frowns On Plan That Wins Fame in London

(By VERNON TIMBERLEY)

"The Shining Hour," a play in three acts, by Keith Winter (Doubleday, Doran & Co.).

It would be very gratifying to feel that Toronto disliked this play for artistic and not moral reasons. Unless you have lived in Toronto you may believe all the stiff-necked stories that you hear about the sturdy big city which feels superior because it lives beside a large lake. Raymond Massey and his company were disappointed in the reception Toronto gave their performances of a play which had gone over in New York and is now playing to packed houses in London, England. If Mr. Massey has so successfully put over "The Shining Hour" in London, as we are informed he has done, he is to be congratulated on being able to convert a feeble play into a box-office success.

For production purposes, "The Shining Hour" is almost ideal. Economically it is a perfect play, calling for only six characters—three men and three women—and the same scene being used throughout the entire three acts. The scene is laid in a large Elizabethan farmhouse in Yorkshire which is the home of the Linden family. The eldest sister, Hannah, supplies a convenient background of petty unpleasantness. She assumes control of the housekeeping, although David's young wife, Judy, is the mistress of the house. Helping with the farm is David's young brother, Micky. The trouble begins when the eldest son, Henry, brings his new wife, Mariella, home to live until their house is built. Hannah and Mariella clash. David falls in love with Mariella, and Judy, David's wife, commits suicide in order not to spoil the new romance. Judy makes clear to Mariella her wish for David's happiness before she deliberately walks beneath the falling roof of a small barn which conveniently catches fire. Mariella convinces David of the reason for Judy killing herself. The curtain falls on David and Mariella in each others arms.

It is expecting too much to hope for an original plot, but it is not expecting too much to demand convincing characters. "The Shining Hour" is distinctly a manufactured thing and not a work of art. Doubtless an uncritical audience might be convinced by so good a company as Raymond Massey directs, but an impartial analysis tells a different story. The proof that this play is not a piece of creative work in the best sense is that the characters are unreal. Hannah is a type, but even her disagreeableness is not convincing. David might have been an interesting character, but one feels that he has very little to say about the matter and is being made to conform to the playwright's wishes and so seems an ineffectual dummy. Mariella, the wife of Henry Linden, is the disturbing factor, but she never seems real. She reminds one of something out of a continental play and leaves one unmoved. Henry is just another dummy, but Judy, David's wife, tops them all. Her reason for stepping aside for another woman is because she loves her husband so much that she cannot see him unhappy. Such a reaction is just stupid and if the playwright had let Judy work out her problem in her own way he might have had a different ending to his play but certainly a more convincing one.

Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of March 14, 1885.)

New Confirmed.—By the arrival of the steamer Otter from Burrard Inlet, the news of the stoppage of survey operations in connection with the extension of the Canadian Pacific Railway to Coal Harbor and English Bay is confirmed. All temporary help was discharged on the spot, and Major Rogers with his permanent staff has gone back to the mainland. It is reported that Mr. Rogers' staff were made aware of the stoppage of the survey, and that Mr. Rogers has been instructed to return to Montreal. Another report states that Major Rogers and party were withdrawn to prepare the grades in the Selkirk Range so as to permit rapid construction, and that Mr. Hamilton has completed his survey of a site for the new town.

Temperance Meeting.—A meeting of those interested in temperance was held in the Cathedral school building last evening. There was a large attendance and short stirring speeches were made by several of the clergymen and others of the audience. At the close the piper was played by a number of the ladies and gentlemen, and a branch of the Blue Ribbon League of the Church of England was organized.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

Sir,—With our clocks set at Pacific Standard Time, it would appear that we have sufficient daylight as it is. Few, indeed, can find work to employ even one-half the present daylight. Another extra hour will only help to aggravate our unfortunate employment; no doubt they often wish the full twenty-four hours was all night; at least they then could sleep the weary workless hours away.

Surely there are many other ways one can save to good advantage without trying it out on our daylight, of which, at both ends of the day, we have more than plenty. Some letters to the press intimate it will not hurt them or their children to rise one hour earlier, and there is nothing in the world to stop them from so doing; but so long as we daily contact the outside by steamship and railway service, who time-table is set to according to Pacific Standard Time, it would seem the height of folly to introduce another system even for a short period, seeing we depend to a great extent on transportation, and this industry most of us appreciate. Again, all such company employees who have school-age children—what a time their poor mothers will have, meals at all hours. The job of preparing three meals is strenuous enough, but when it comes to the extra, this does not seem fair, and all to gratify the few citizens who do not wish to rise an hour earlier unless they can make sure all their neighbors will have to get up at the same hour.

Tourists and travelers arriving on the usual Pacific Standard Time, and wishing to make a business appointment, say 5 p.m.—well, it's just too bad for them. The office or business house, they would find, is closed as it is not 5 o'clock but 6.

I dare not repeat here what many a man has said on such former occasions when daylight saving was in vogue. After all, it's not daylight saving. It's precious valuable time wasted for many a visitor we can ill afford to annoy. Why wish to disarrange the present orderly system? There are many other ways of demonstrating how progressive Victoria can be, and now, for the sake of order, please let our clocks tick on, as per usual, on Pacific Standard Time. After all, 6 o'clock is not 7 o'clock at least not in the morning.

LIBRARY SERVICE FOR SAANICH

Sir,—Since many inquiries are being made as to the progress in connection with the renewal of library service between Saanich and Victoria, many of your readers would like to know just where the matter stands.

In the first place the committee received a very courteous and sympathetic reception from the council; a committee consisting of members of the Saanich council and a local committee was appointed to confer with the library board in Victoria. This has been agreed to and as soon as it is convenient to all parties concerned a conference will be held. The committee of local residents of Saanich wishes to thank all those who helped to get names on the petitions and also for the various organizations which assured the committee of their support.

SOCIAL REFORMS

Relief Work Held Impractical With Cost $18,000,000

Hon. George S. Pearson Tells Legislature It Would Take $95,000,000 Yearly to Employ All Out of Work in Province—Quarter Unemployable

It would cost $18,000,000 a year to put employable men on relief in British Columbia to work for one year, Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Mines and Labor, stated in the Legislature yesterday, knocking the "work" out of "work and wages" effectively as a means of state aid in relief of unemployment. In addition, the minister declared, one out of four men now on relief are considered unemployable.

The balance of votes in the Provincial Secretary's Department and most of those in the Department of Labor were passed by the House at the afternoon sitting in the committee on supply. The House recessed at 5:30 p.m., until 8:45 p.m., after considerable discussion on relief and other matters.

WHOLE LIST, $95,000,000

"It would require $18,000,000 a year to put our employable men to work, or $10,000,000 more than the present cost of $8,000,000. And that is based on the theory that one employed man will lead to the engagement of another through private channels. It has been figured that $2,200 would be the average cost per man of putting men to work with equipment and materials for say, 300 days in the year. On that basis it would require $95,000,000 to put all our men to work who are now on relief," Mr. Pearson stated.

The minister's declaration followed a proposal made by A. M. Manson, K.C. (Liberal, Okanagan), that Governments divert $8,000,000 now spent in British Columbia between all agencies into direct-work channels at fair wages. Mr. Manson recommended abolition of relief camps, creation of an independent relief commission, and proposed the House sit as a committee of the whole to give precedence to relief matters until a definite expression of opinion could be reached.

BY PRIVATE INDUSTRY

Advised of the $18,000,000 computation, Mr. Manson renewed his former proposal that all relief be addressed to returning men to private employment in industry. To this end he proposed that the Government extend the present system of small guarantees to banks of loans to industries, pointing to mining, lumbering, agriculture and other industries where such a plan had worked to advantage. Guarantees last year were $20,000.

Proposals that representations be renewed at Ottawa asking that relief camps be abolished came from all sides of the House. Rev. Robert Connell, leader of the Opposition, said the C.C.F. would support any reasonable resolution to abolish camps. Discussion lapsed on the issue, with talk of presentation later of such a resolution.

OFFICIALS COMMENDED

Praise for the work done by Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the Economic Council, coupled with requests that the composition of the council be arranged differently, followed in other discussions.

The Minister of Labor was praised for his intentions in regard to ameliorating hours worked and wages paid in British Columbia enterprises, with some disagreement as to the effect of regulations passed and enforced to date. More inspectors are to be added this year in an effort to tighten up the operation of labor laws, Mr. Pearson stated.

Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, during completion of votes in his department, explained that $18,000 out of the $100,000 vote for preventive medicine and health service organization this year will be spent for public health nurses, and unstated sums for extension of work in regard to tubercular cases and social diseases.

LABOR DEPARTMENT

Estimated expenditures in the Department of Labor are $658,975, compared with $756,581 last year, and $495,948 in the year previous. Old-age pensions in British Columbia are expected to cost a total of $2,204,674 this year, of which the Dominion will pay $1,592,167, the Province $553,037, and other provinces, in refunds, $81,784. Some additions to staff are indicated in Labor votes. Main items for this year, with last year's figures in parentheses, follow:

Minister's office, $2,171 ($2,056); general office, $41,371 ($22,013); employment service, $32,075 ($28,277); factories inspection, $6,818 ($6,887); Economic Council, $16,000 ($20,000); votes in aid of youth, $1,500 (not shown); provincial share of old-age pensions, $50,037 ($49,129). Votes under the former Minimum Wage Board are deleted and these votes classified under other heads, mostly in the general office.

Itemized votes show $5,000 for administration under the Board of Industrial Relations; traveling expenses under various heads, $6,080, and other votes under headings otherwise unchanged.

MINES DEPARTMENT

Estimated expenditures in the Mines Department are $172,697, compared with $165,620 last year, and $163,925 in the year previous. The main votes, with 1934 appropriations in parentheses, follow:

Minister's office, $10,239 ($10,124); general office, $16,683 ($16,170); mines inspection branch, $30,269 ($32,450); Bureau of Mines, $18,732 ($15,344); mines rescue and training stations, $8,858 (unchanged); grants, $3,300 (unchanged); miscellaneous votes, $82,613 ($77,372); statutory, $2,000 (unchanged). Grants for mining trails are placed at $40,000, unchanged; ad-

SPEED TYPING IS BENEFICIAL

Miss Erma Wright, Champion Typist, Tells Value of Special Training

MISS ERMA WRIGHT

"Training for speed work greatly increases the general efficiency of stenographers," remarked Miss Erma Wright, Canada's champion typist and diamond medalist, as she raced through a familiar sentence at the rate of 160 words a minute in a private typing demonstration at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Miss Wright, Toronto, head of the educational department of Underwood Elliott Fisher Limited, Underwood typewriter distributors, formerly known as the United Typewriter Company, Limited, has been visiting Victoria since Sunday, and has given a number of demonstrations in the ten commercial schools here. She also performed before a gathering of 150 employees at the Legislative Buildings yesterday and gave an interesting and informative talk on speed typing.

PROVEN ABILITY

The department which Miss Wright heads is for the purpose of assisting teachers and students who are interested in speed work.

In explaining her extraordinary ability yesterday, Miss Wright said she had achieved it only after practising six hours a day for three months steady. She adopted this programme after two years' experience as an office stenographer, and with a desire to rank high in a competition in 1925. Her perseverance triumphed and Miss Wright won the Canadian championship in 1925, 1926, 1927 and 1928, typing at a speed of 115 words a minute for thirty consecutive minutes. She lifted the world's amateur championship in 1928 with an exhibition of similar speed, which still stands as the best performance.

"Determination, perseverance, accuracy and concentration are needed by students to achieve success in speed typing," Miss Wright explained. "It is also necessary that students have a real desire to become 'speed writers' and I am happy to say that stenographers and students in Victoria are especially keen."

HIGHLY ENTERTAINING

Enthusiastic about her work and blessed with a charming personality that immediately attracts complete attention, Miss Wright proves highly entertaining to all groups which she addresses or gives demonstrations.

She is greatly taken with Victoria, and although she went to Vancouver last night to give exhibitions there, Miss Wright hopes to return here for a week-end visit. Next week she plans to return to her headquarters in Toronto, from where she will go to Nova Scotia on a demonstration tour.

Her appearances in this city were conducted by Miss S. E. Craig.

Obituary

MURPHY—Edward Dillon Murphy, aged sixty-one years, 3073 Alhambra Street, died yesterday at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. He was born in Nova Scotia and came to Victoria in 1908. He was a member of the Saanich Council for one term ten years ago, representing Ward Seven. Mr. Murphy was employed on the B.C. Electric Railway interurban lines for some years. He is survived by two sons, Arthur P. Murphy, and Eugene, Alberni; one brother, Joseph Murphy, Saanich, and three brothers in Edmonton. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel. Interment will be made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery. Rev. Canon Stocken will officiate.

ATTACKS SYSTEM

The speaker roundly criticized the Provincial Government for its proposed actions in many matters and the speeches of its members in the House, and repeated throughout the evening that the existing economic system was unable to meet the present situation and must give way to the programme as advanced by the C.C.F. There was a crying need for distribution, he asserted, and contended this problem could only be solved by the issuance of national or provincial currency, backed with the natural resources of the country. Harold E. Winch, M.P.P., spoke briefly, charging unrestrained patronage on the part of the Government. Reporting on activities in the House, Mr. Winch declared he was amazed by the control of Victoria people in not giving forcible vent to their feelings. Applause met his declaration that the C.C.F. would go into power in British Columbia "not to reform capitalism, but to overthrow it."

ATTACH NO BLAME IN CAR ACCIDENT

Ceremoner's Jury Exonerates Rev. John McTurk Following Fatal Automobile Crash

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP).—A coroner's jury today returned a verdict of accidental death after investigating the fatal automobile accident last Saturday when Mrs. Catherine McTurk, eighty-one, and her three-year-old grandson, John McTurk, lost their lives. The jury exonerated from all blame any one connected with the accident.

The two were killed when the car in which they were riding and which was driven by John's father, Rev. John McTurk, of Chilliwack, collided with an interurban tram at the corner of Clarke Drive and Georgia Street. Rev. Mr. McTurk, a "seven-year-old daughter, Helen, and Catherine, fourteen, a niece are in hospital recovering from injuries received in the accident.

JURY CONVICTS CLIFF DAWLEY

First Charge of Breaking and Entering is Heard, With Sentence Deferred.

Clifford Dawley was convicted of breaking and entering the candy store of William Rogers, on January 18, with intent to commit theft, at the criminal assizes here yesterday. Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson deferred sentence until the end of the assizes.

The evidence for the Crown was largely the same as was given at the preliminary hearing in the police court. The main witness for the Crown was Constable Thomas Stevenson, who said he had seen the accused with two others, come out of the store and had pursued them, firing his revolver. He positively identified Dawley as one of the men and testified that on reaching the corner of Yates and Blanshard Streets, the accused had fallen after he fired. The accused got up and continued to run along Blanshard and then on Johnson, escaping behind the B.C. Telephone office.

The defence offered by the accused was that he had nothing to do with the crime. His version was that the wound that he had received came as a result of his getting innocently in range of the policeman's gun, but that he was not in the store.

ADmits RECORD BAD

Dawley admitted that his record was not a good one. He had been released from the penitentiary only seven months ago, but claimed he had tried to go straight since then. He had found it necessary to take on assumed names in order to carry on agencies for the sale of goods throughout the Island because his past record stood in his way. He said he had been at the Lagoon the night before trying to get crabs. His car broke down, but he managed to get to the city with it and took it home. In order to be able to go up the Island in connection with his business, he had come down town about 6 o'clock next morning to see if he could get the car fixed at the Mutual Oil Company Garage.

POLICEMAN SHOOTs

He stated he was coming away from there along Yates Street when he heard the sound of glass breaking and then the firing of a revolver. As he came to the scene of the robbery, he told the court, he saw three men rush out of the candy store. He had hesitated and then saw the policeman coming out of the theatre and knew that in view of his past record he would not be believed and so decided to turn away. As he ran, the policeman fired and he received the shot.

He explained that he did not go home in the wounded condition because he was afraid to alarm his friends. Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C. Crown prosecutor, said he had nothing to do with the offence at the store and was not in the store.

WOULD FORGET PAST

The accused told the jury he was not trying to hide the past, but was trying to re-establish himself. He had the disadvantage of having no funds and had to defend himself, but he hoped to live down his past. Mr. Jackson refrained from addressing the jury in view of the fact that the accused was not represented by counsel.

The jury was composed of Edward B. MacLeod (foreman), Hugh M. Noble, Robert H. Hiscocks, John W. Kenyon, Raymond Risby, David H. Whyte, Walter E. Talbot, Charles Barnard, William J. Davis, Charles R. V. Bagshaw, James L. Ford and Daniel Knight. After being out for thirty-five minutes, the jury returned with a verdict of guilty.

The second charge against Dawley, of breaking and entering the Dominion Theatre, is yet to be tried at the assizes. At the opening of the court yesterday the accused said he was not ready to go on with it at present. The case will be the first one called this morning.

NO REPUTATION IS SOUGHT, SAYS MAYOR

1934, and increasing until 35 per cent becomes payable in the final years; capital sums outstanding to bear 5 per cent interest meanwhile.

2. Amendment to the Vancouver Incorporation Act to declare valid and legal all prior actions of the council or city officials "in using or converting any sum or sums of money collected for sinking fund purposes, and indemnifying against civil action in that regard."

3. General leave to omit levying or setting up sinking funds on any agreement or by-law of the city for the calendar years 1935 and 1936, a right to be exercised by council by-law.

INTEREST DEFERMENT

4. Deferment between March 31, 1935, and March 31, 1937, of interest rates above 3 per cent, on the condition that such deferred interest would then be due and payable, was asked in the following terms:

"Provided that the council shall meet and pay all installments of interest due during the two-year period between March 31, 1935, and March 31, 1937, on all debentures and bonds issued and authorized by the city on the basis of 3 per cent per annum no action shall be brought, or maintained in any court in the province during the said two-year period—against the city, the council or any member or official thereof by reason of the failure to pay more than the said 3 per cent per annum on the said securities during the said two-year period."

"It being further provided that at the expiration of the said two-year period the amount of interest by reason of the failure to pay more than the said 3 per cent per annum on the said securities during the said two-year period."

MUNICIPAL BANK

5. Other clauses dealing with a municipal bank and a bond issue, taxation of Crown leases in private use, police board control over appointment of a court clerk and minor changes in the city's charter by reason of the failure to pay more than the said 3 per cent per annum on the said securities during the said two-year period."

Speaking to the main request, that Vancouver be given legislative sanction to defer interest in excess of 3 per cent for a two-year period, Mayor McGeer said this represented some $800,000 a year to the city, being the difference between average interest rates of 4.65 per cent and the 3 per cent level proposed for temporary deferment. This course, he added, might not be necessary if the Provincial Government made adequate provision to assist the city.

NO REPUTATION

"The city is not asking the right to cancel interest without agreement, nor the right to repudiate. All we ask is that for two years we can defer interest in excess of 3 per cent, so that we can put our finances on a permanently stabilized basis. I do not agree with those who say a major collapse is coming for Vancouver, and that we should let it take its course. I believe we can avoid collapse by action and negotiation."

The jury was composed of Edward B. MacLeod (foreman), Hugh M. Noble, Robert H. Hiscocks, John W. Kenyon, Raymond Risby, David H. Whyte, Walter E. Talbot, Charles Barnard, William J. Davis, Charles R. V. Bagshaw, James L. Ford and Daniel Knight. After being out for

tion now," Mayor McGeer told the committee.

To R. H. Pooley, K.C. M.P.P., who suggested in effect that Vancouver avoid any deferment by reducing its request to one year, and by seeking provincial advance to meet any interest differences implied, Mr. McGeer said that would be satisfactory to himself.

NOT COUNCIL VIEW

Alderman McRae interposed to say the council had not considered the interest-deferment proposal in its present form, and, in his opinion, would not support it. Mayor McGeer rejoined that the council would be invited to consider these and possibly more serious proposals on March 18, if Vancouver were not assisted.

It was after the committee had adjourned discussion on the above issues, until Friday at 10 a.m., that His Worship repeated his request for Provincial sanction of Vancouver's intended application to Ottawa for leave to operate a municipal savings bank.

NEW CITY HALL

If Vancouver secured, ultimately, necessary authority to go ahead with the savings bank plan, it was proposed to issue $1,500,000 in small denomination bonds bearing 2.5 or 3 per cent interest. Some $600,000 to $700,000 of the sum would be used for construction of the new city hall, and $750,000 for other work projects within the city confines. His Worship said:

"It was objected that the city was asking for leave from the Province to 'establish and operate' a municipal savings bank, authority likely to be beyond the powers of the Provincial Government to grant. Mayor McGeer said he would agree to rewording of the section, the sole object being to secure Provincial approval for intended direct application to the Dominion Government at Ottawa, through the banking committee or otherwise."

MUNICIPAL BANKS

Municipal banks had been started in Britain in 1919 on the plan of R. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, and were now permitted in any city of over 50,000 population in the United Kingdom. Birmingham had pioneered successfully in the field, and Glasgow had more recently followed suit. The plan, His Worship said, was an effective way of monetizing the credit of a community to do public service in that area. A Dominion charter would be necessary.

Birmingham owned huge public utilities, and had a much larger population. Mrs. R. P. Stevens, M.P.P., commented.

The time was coming when cities would have to consider a form of partnership with public utilities or outright taking over of these services, Mr. McGeer rejoined. Personally, he said, he favored the Swedish system, where the State entered into partnership with utilities, leaving active control to the latter.

PUBLIC UTILITIES

Passing to another point, Mr. McGeer spoke of Vancouver's drive for the freeing of by-law balances which to an extent of $600,000 are now held in savings deposits at low interest in the banks, while current

Young Liberals of both sexes gathered at Liberal headquarters last evening to adopt a constitution for formation of the Twentieth Century Young Liberals' Association of Victoria. V. Speed occupied the chair and Miss D. Bennett acted as secretary.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the first annual meeting and election of officers on April 10. Several speakers from the Mainland will be invited.

Alan Chambers, Federal Liberal candidate for Nanaimo riding, addressed the gathering on the aims and objects of Liberalism and the necessity of politically organizing young men and women.

It was admitted here the real situation was not changed by Goering's public admission the air force exists, since the French General Staff has long known Germany has been developing her military aviation.

FRENCH VIEWPOINT

French officials, however, were described as feeling it might be well to utilize the present situation to show the world that Germany, by her own admission, is violating the Versailles Treaty. The French hold no hope of inducing Germany to join with her air fleet, but they believe some tactical advantage may be gained.

Officials here were inclined to think Goering's move was intended as a defiant reply to the recent British White Paper, which criticized Germany and other countries for rearming.

There is an Agony of Mind that only sensitive women who suffer from superfluous hair can understand. They distrust advertisements which offer instantaneous cures, having found the relief merely transitory. They rarely speak of their disfigurement, but just bear it in silence. ## RENEW HIGHWAY BOARD APPEALS

Government Invited to Fulfill Promise to Create Independent Body

Election pledges wherein creation of a provincial highway commission was promised were brought home to the Provincial Government last evening by R. H. Carson (Liberal, Kamloops) and Byron Johnson (Liberal, Victoria).

Creation of an independent highway board was also favored by R. W. Bruhn (Independent, Salmon Arm) and by Ernest Baker (C.C.P., Mackenzie), who first mentioned the subject. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, of Revelstoke, a former Minister of Public Works, opposed the plan.

Thomas King (Liberal, Columbia) suggested to the Government that the gasoline tax be increased from seven cents per gallon to ten, with the extra three cents allocated to servicing new loans for road construction.

TOURIST TRAVEL

Several members joined in stating provincial highways in their present state were not conducive to tourist travel. The customary battle on the annual district road appropriations for the year, for which $1,415,000 is allotted unchanged from last year, precipitated the discussion.

Hon. F. M. Macpherson, Minister of Works, announced that it was hoped before long to start a special programme of highway surfacing, to be exclusive of the normal road works for the year.

Speaking to the highway board plan, Mr. Carson said the time had come to implement the promise made at the last election, and to set up an independent body with a definite plan of future action. Byron Johnson, concurring, stated that, unless the Province acted now, it would be unprepared to protect in an orderly manner when funds were found available for highway work.

VIOLENCE REPORTED IN STRIKE SECTIONS

pathy strike of union seamen employed on the 220 cargo vessels operating in coastwise and inter-coastal service. Reports to that effect are unfounded, as the steamship companies have long since granted preferential hiring of union men and we are now arbitrating wages and working conditions.

VIOLENCE AT SAN PEDRO

First violence reported in the strike was at San Pedro, where the Union Oil Company's tanker Los Angeles today became the ninth petroleum vessel to be laid up there.

Charles McKell, twenty-six, of Huntington Park, told police that he was beaten last night by a gang of seamen who mistakenly believed that he was about to join the crew of the freighter Effingham. McKell said he was not a seaman, but was going aboard the vessel with a suitcase to spend the night with friends when he was attacked.

Five tankers were crewless in San Francisco Bay ports and three tankers are tied up in the Seattle area. Latest to be deserted by the crew in the North was the Standard Oil tanker District of Columbia, which berthed today at Point Wells, north of Seattle.

Walk-offs today by crews of two more ships left five ships tied up at Portland.

P. Sinclair Elliott Joins Legal Ranks Here—Welcomed by Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson

A Saskatchewan lawyer in the person of Percival Sinclair Elliott, formerly of Watrous, Sask., was admitted to the Bar of British Columbia, and signed the roll before Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson in the Supreme Court here yesterday morning. He was presented to the court by Lindley Crease, K.C., representing the benchers.

Mr. Elliott is a graduate of the Universities of Acadia and Dalhousie and a member of the Bars of Nova Scotia and Saskatchewan, being admitted to the latter in 1908. Until he retired from practice in 1929, he was for many years a member of the firm of Elliott & Elliott, at Watrous, Sask., and is well and favorably known in that province.

One of his contributions to Saskatchewan was the promotion and organization of the Dominion Electric Company, Limited, which company now furnishes light and power to practically all the towns and villages of Southern Saskatchewan. Mr. Elliott was director and general counsel of this company until he left that province.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Always prominent in political circles in Saskatchewan, Mr. Elliott comes to Victoria highly recommended by the members of the Conservative executive of that province. Including Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, Conservative leader, and A. E. Benne, K.C., chairman of the Saskatchewan Bar Society.

Mr. Elliott is joining E. L. Tait, and the new firm of Tait & Elliott will specialize in the particular lines of practice such as criminal, corporation and other specialized branches of the law. Mr. Tait will also continue his general practice under his present firm of Tait & Tait.

Mr. Justice Robertson extended a welcome to Mr. Elliott as a practicing lawyer in this province, and hoped he would have abundant success.

Gangs Search for Engineer's Body After Three English Trains Crash

KING'S LANGLEY, Herts., Eng., March 14 (AP).—A triple collision on the London, Midland & Scottish Railroad, near here, caused serious injury to two guards, scalded a fireman and was believed to have killed an engineer early today.

Breakdown gangs with flares searched debris piled thirty feet high in a hunt for the body of the engineer of a southbound freight train which smashed into the wreckage of two other trains, a milk carrier and a freight, which had crashed previously.

Thousands of gallons of London's morning milk flowed like a river on the tracks, and all the main line traffic to Scotland was disrupted for hours.

Flames broke out from the three wrecked locomotives and spread swiftly through the wreckage, but the Watford Fire Brigade extinguished the blaze after fighting it for four hours.

thirty-five and his real name as George Arthur Brest, became acquainted at Cannes last August with Stephen Raphael, the British banker, and Miss Mary H. Jopling, the society girl. Arthur and Raphael took a suite of rooms together.

BASKED ON BEACH

One day while basking on the beach with Miss Jopling, Arthur told her he had a diamond and sapphire bracelet which belonged to his mother and which he was fearful of losing. Miss Jopling agreed to keep it for him until she returned to New York, when he would call for it.

Two weeks after her arrival here, last September 3, the telephone in her Park Avenue apartment rang and Arthur told her he had just landed and asked her to mail the bracelet to him at a mid-town hotel, which she did.

WOULD SEND IT TO MOTHER

Meanwhile Raphael had discovered the loss of the bracelet, which he valued at $1,600, and had learned through a mutual friend of a letter Miss Jopling had written to Arthur, in which she told him, unless he reclaimed "the bracelet," she would send it to his mother in England.

Police found the jewelry in a shop whose proprietor said it had been bought on October 5, 1934, for $275. The Film Daily Year Book for 1935 lists Arthur as having appeared with Norma Shearer last year in "Riptide."

Copyrighted Story Says New York Club Threatening Revolt Over Pay

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP).—The Daily News, in a copyrighted story, says the players of New York Americans of the National Hockey League are in a state of "revolt" because of unpaid salaries and lack of proper medical care.

Joe Simpson is "through" as manager of the club, the story says, and players are threatening to "mutiny" unless some of their back pay is forthcoming.

The players have sums ranging from $200 to $1,000 coming to them and the families of some are in actual want, according to The News. In addition, their dressing-room is not provided with adequate sanitary arrangements, and proper treatment has not been given to injured members of the squad.

The mutiny, the paper says, flared up when William W. Dwyer, Jr., son of the owner and business representative, left for Florida after last Sunday's game with Montreal Maroons.

Other officers of the club could not be reached immediately for comment.

Columbia W.A. Reviews Activities of Past Year

Large Attendance at Service of Holy Communion Prior to Opening of Business Sessions—Many Visitors Welcomed

The thirty-first annual meeting of Columbia Diocesan Board of the W.A. opened yesterday morning with the service of Holy Communion in Christ Church Cathedral, at 10 o'clock, at which there were 275 communicants. Rev. Canon Nunns acted as celebrant owing to the indisposition of the bishop, Rev. Canon Chadwick, Rev. E. O. Robathan, Rev. F. W. Weaver and Rev. T. R. Lancaster assisting. The united thanksgiving, amounting to $563.75, was presented, the open offering being taken for the jubilee fund.

This being the jubilee year of the Dominion Board, it was fitting that there should be a record attendance at the business sessions, held in the Memorial Hall, commencing at 11:30 o'clock, when Mrs. C. D. Schofield welcomed the delegates with the words of Bishop Roper, that the Women's Auxiliary was the most representative organization of church women in Canada. Mrs. Schofield referred to the growth of the organization from the seven inspired church women, led by Mrs. Tilton, in Ottawa, to the present-day Dominion-wide membership representative of every diocese.

In her reply, Mrs. E. O. Robathan expressed the gratitude of the delegates for the kind welcome given them. Greetings from the Dominion Board were conveyed by the vice-president for Western Canada, Mrs. W. H. Belson, who referred to the foundations so well and truly laid fifty years ago.

Mrs. Schofield brought a message of encouragement from the bishop, with his blessing.

VISITORS WELCOMED

The diocesan president, Lady Lake, gave a sincere welcome to Miss R. M. Davies, of the Ridley Home at Prince Rupert, who had attended the first annual meeting of Columbia W.A. Diocesan Board; Miss Meadows, late of the Elkhorn School at Brandon and social service secretary of that Diocesan Board; Mrs. Kirby, president of a Quebec branch; Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Martin, of Qu'Appelle Diocese, were also welcomed.

A letter of sympathy, with flowers, was voted to be sent to Mrs. H. M. Bolton, of Metcalfe, who is recovering from a recent operation.

The recording secretary reported details of the year's work, the membership being 2,689 in 116 branches. The work of the educational department was reported by Mrs. Wilfred Hartley, and showed an increasing interest taken in mission study, and additions to the W.A. library.

The valuable and beautiful work accomplished by the Church Embroidery Guild was reported by Mrs. T. A. Greenway, showing many churches benefiting by church hangings made and renovated. Orders for this class of work would be welcome, and could be left at the Deanery, where the guild meets for work this afternoon.

Mrs. Brimer, as Dominion and Dorcas secretary, spoke of the joy these beautiful church hangings bring to small missions, to which they are donated. The report of the united thanksgiving brought the session to a close, and during the recess members took the opportunity of inspecting the display of Dorcas work and visiting the literature display and W.A. library.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session opened with prayers read by Mrs. C. S. Quainton, the jubilee membership prayer being read. The address of the president drew an increased number of members to the meeting, and Lady Lake expressed pleasure at seeing such a record attendance and welcomed the newly-elected officers of the branches.

A society numbering 88,000 members, with a yearly budget of $240,000, was one result of the fifty years of endeavor on the part of the women of the church. Five new missionaries were sent overseas last year, and all salaries had been paid without any deduction. Even wider work was waiting for means to carry it on, so that efforts must not slacken or cease, she said.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Mrs. Hitchcock, Miss Foster and Mrs. Comley were appointed a special committee to deal with the president's address and report at Friday's session. The treasurer's report, combined with the tabulated statement, was distributed in printed form, and Mrs. J. R. Hartley gave a full explanation of the details.

The Dorcas secretary, Miss Lydia Hill, brought in a detailed report of the work of her department, which covered the outflow of Christmas gifts and prairie relief, and, at the close, the Dominion Dorcas secretary, Mrs. Brimer, expressed her thanks to Miss Hill, and admiration of the fine organizing and systematic work which, she said, was not excelled by any other branch.

Mrs. A. Bengough brought in a satisfactory report of the "extra-curricular" which fund has enabled the board to make monthly contributions to social service and the Sunday school by post, also to assist in a special training course and to meet many appeals to the board. The girls' secretary, Miss Dora Mott, gave an interesting report of the year's work, including a successful church girls' camp held in August, and the addition of two branches. ## Anglican Young People

ST. JOHN'S

St. John's Branch (Duncan) of the A.Y.P.A. held a meeting Tuesday evening, in St. John's Hall, when Rev. Arthur Blesinger gave one of a series of lectures on "The Book of Common Prayer." All members then joined in on a work night. After Evensong last Sunday evening, Rev. Harding Priest, of Calgary, Western field secretary of the general board of religious education, addressed A.Y.P.A. members and their friends on the different work to be carried on in the four arms of the A.Y.P.A., which are worship, fellowship and education. The next fellowship hour will be held in the hall next Sunday, after Evensong, when Rev. A. M. Acheson, of Colwood, will be the speaker.

ST. PETER'S

St. Peter's Branch, Quamichan, of the Anglican Young People's Association, held a meeting in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening, when the president, Don McRae, gave an address on "Co-operation." The committees of the newly-formed organization were announced as follows: Missionary committee, Mrs. H. B. Hayward, Trevor Bazett and Mollie Footner; catering, Millie Sowerby, Charles Collison and John J. L. A. Gibbs; membership, John Bateman, E. C. French and Miss B. Ransom; programme, Miss "Pat" Carr Hilton and convener of other committees. After games and dancing refreshments were served by members of the executive.

The child's natural curiosity about his own body, and those of his parents and brothers and sisters, should be satisfied in a casual and natural way, just as one answers other questions of the child. Use correct terms if possible. Don't substitute terms which only have to be discarded later.

An exposition in cold print, or a single formal lecture on the subject is apt to do more harm than good. The task requires that parents should be on, very intimate terms with their children, and on suitable occasions, when this feeling of intimacy is strong, children should be encouraged to speak freely and ask for explanation. We may stimulate interest in the subject by a few lessons in natural history.

DUNCAN

The study group of the Duncan Parent-Teacher Association held an interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. R. Smith, when a paper was read by Mrs. W. E. Corfield on "The Social Life of the School Age Child." The paper provoked a lively discussion as to the age at which children should join clubs, athletic or otherwise, which might encroach on their evenings. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Leeming, when a paper will be given by Mrs. D. A. Girvin.

Daffodil Tea Is Held By Conservative Club

Guests at the largely-attended daffodil tea held by the Victoria Women's Conservative Association yesterday afternoon were struck by the beauty of the decorations of the clubrooms, Campbell Building. The room had been transformed into a veritable Spring garden, with great branches of plum blossom, ferns and greenery and a profusion of lovely daffodils. A cosy wood fire burned in the fireplace, lending a cheerful atmosphere, and each of the tea tables was centred by a vase of daffodils, plum blossom and pussy willow.

The long tea table, which was arranged with a silver basket of the same flowers, looked most charming and silver candelabra held yellow and green apples. Mrs. Herbert Anson and Mrs. Reginald Hayward poured tea and coffee, and assisting in serving the guests were Misses Ida Gibson, Ruth Parr and Louise Maynard.

GUESTS RECEIVED

Mrs. Kate Palmer, the president, and Mrs. Robert D. Harvey, convener of the affair, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Harvey wearing an attractive Irish colleen costume, in which she later sang several delightful and popular numbers, Mr.

G. Schofield playing her accompaniments.

A home-cooking table of tempting dainties was in charge of Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. E. Maynard. The decorations were the handwork of Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. A. P. Sinclair, Mrs. Parr, Mrs. J. W. Jones and Mrs. Hugh Allan, and the tea conveners were Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. G. V. Edgar, Mrs. S. R. Roberts and Mrs. Rolston.

MUSIC ENJOYED

Mrs. S. R. Bowden was convener of the attractive musical programme, which included songs by Mrs. B. Noel; a piano solo by Miss Waugh; a dance, "Ballet Moderne," by Miss Betty Clair; the McVie children, Peggy, Dorothy, Barbara and Bob, appeared in particularly appealing numbers, Barbara singing two solos, accompanied at the piano by her sister, Dorothy, who also played the accompaniments for Peggy's Irish dance and for the vocal solos of her brother, Bob. The children were enthusiastically applauded.

After tea Mrs. Palmer, on behalf of the convener and the members of the association, presented Mrs. Harvey with a beautiful potter fern in appreciation of her invaluable work in arranging the party.

Anniversary Party Is Held At Langford

The first anniversary of the opening of the Legion club rooms, Langford, was celebrated on Monday evening. Contract and auction bridge were played, eleven tables in progress. A most enjoyable musical programme was presented, the artists being Mr. Leslie Hughes, song, "Glorious Devon"; Mrs. F. H. Staverman, song, "The Swallows"; Mr. E. P. Ashe, humorous sketches; Mrs. W. Moore, song, "Call Me Back, Pal of Mine."

Supper was served by members of the W.A. The birthday cake, centred with one candle, was made by Mrs. Staverman. At the request of the audience, the president, Sergeant-Major Mackie, D.C.M., sang "The Birthday Song." He was assisted during the evening by the president of the W.A., Mrs. A. G. Mackie. At the conclusion of the supper, Mrs. B. Deane-Freeman led the community singing, opening with "The Maple Leaf."

The convener for contract bridge was Mrs. H. A. Hinks, and for auction bridge Mr. A. G. Mackie, prizes being won by Mrs. Leslie Hughes, Mr. A. A. Forbes-Calland, Mrs. Deck and Mr. Maurice Johnston. The W.A. was congratulated on the work accomplished during the past year.

"THE CHILD"

By REGINALD H. WIGGINS, M.D., C.M., L.M.C.C.

SEX AND THE CHILD

The great trouble with the sex question in its relation to the child and his training is the very prevalent, and unnatural and unhealthy attitude the average parent has on sex matters, and the fact that he unfortunately imparts this attitude to the child.

With our Anglo-Saxon prudery and exaggerated sense of false modesty, we hold up our self-righteous hands in holy horror when sex is mentioned, and speak of it in hushed voices, forgetting that along with the instinct for power, it is the most dominant characteristic in the child's life.

Sex cannot healthfully be denied nor repressed. If it is, the results are faulty behavior, and unhealthy, crippled personalities.

What instruction may we give; when to give; and how may it be given? Helpful instruction for our children as to the nature and meaning of sex depends first on the parent's attitude. This must be frank, matter-of-fact, and unafraid.

Appreciate the fact that when the child is old enough to ask questions he is old enough to understand a direct, simple, truthful and serious answer.

The child's natural curiosity about his own body, and those of his parents and brothers and sisters, should be satisfied in a casual and natural way, just as one answers other questions of the child. Use correct terms if possible. Don't substitute terms which only have to be discarded later.

Clubs-Societies

Women of the Moose

Many activities were planned at a meeting of the Women of the Moose, Victoria Chapter No. 25, on Monday evening, with Senior Regent Elizabeth Jane presiding. The publicity report for February was given by Miss D. Guelph, the chairman also stating that the grand recorder's office is now in Washington, D.C., instead of Mooseheart. The senior regent appointed Past Regent Alice Hatcher as drill captain for the balance of the year. The Maple Leaf Legion No. 53 will hold its annual banquet at the Douglas Hotel on Saturday, at which many visitors will be present, among whom will be the district deputy grand recorder of British Columbia, Elizabeth Deane. A letter was also received from Lodge No. 1380 stating that the Mooseheart film, entitled "Tomorrow's Citizens," will be featured at one of the local theatres next week and every member was requested to see it. The lodge will enter Miss Nancy White as candidate for May queen. It was decided to hold a banquet to celebrate the chapter's fourteenth anniversary. On the social night of Monday, March 25, an indoor picnic will follow the meeting. There will also be a drill practice next Wednesday evening at the hall.

Alpato Club

Lynn to the mothers was responded to by Mrs. Gibson, Miss B. Applegate contributed vocal solos; Elsie Gillis danced, and little Lisa Roskelly greatly amused the audience with her singing, dancing and reciting. The guest speaker was Mrs. D. H. Duncan, principal of St. Margaret's School, who impressed her audience with a helpful talk on "Mothers and the Problems of Their Girls."

Miss Eleanor and Mildred Rutter, who will leave next month to make their home in Jasper, were presented with a small gift of remembrance from the club by the president, Miss Nora Gibson. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening was brought to a close with a sing-around the piano, with Miss Ruth McIntosh playing.

CHOIR RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT

Last-Minute Arrangements Completed for Meister-singers' Programme

FREDERIC KING

With last-minute arrangements completed and final details worked out, the Meistersingers, one of the most popular of Victoria's musical organizations, are ready for their only major performance here this season, tomorrow night in the Shrine Auditorium. The concert is being held in aid of Fairfield United Church funds.

The programme selected for presentation has been chosen with a view to catering to the discriminating taste of Victoria music lovers.
Difficult, yet popular and lively,
the programme bids fair to be outstanding in its success.

"Tickets are moving well and may be secured at many downtown music stores."

LONG EXPERIENCE
All choral groups must have a conductor, and the Meistersingers are directed by a local conductor of repute, Frederic King. Long experience in handling similar musical organizations has enabled Mr.
King to secure a musical insight which permits him to feel the pulse of the music, keeping it smooth and enjoyable.

Among the selections to be heard on tomorrow's programme are "O, Isis and Osiris," from the Mozart work, "The Magic Flute"; "Gloria and Love to the Men of Old," from Gounod's tremendously popular opera, "Faust," and two or three other well-known choral compositions.

The soloists with the choir have not been imported for the programme, but are members of the Meistersingers. They include Mrs.
Thelma Johns, Mrs. Ursula Aldous,

Frank Spooner, Frank Ivings, Fred Wright, Pierre Timp and several others.

Thrilling Film At the Columbia

The most lovable screen rogue to live on the screen is said to be portrayed by Richard Dix in "Stingaree," RKO-Radio's romantic melodrama, opening today at the Columbia Theatre.

"Stingaree," according to word
from Hollywood, was a mischievous, adventure-loving highwayman who terrorized Australia in the seventies, a crook with a bent toward the esthetic and beautiful women. Between crimes he improvised beautiful music and when he needed an audience he thought little of kidnapping it.

His career came to an end when he risked his life and lost his freedom to help a poor girl gain fame
in the operatic world.

The climax of the film is a story of triumphant love, and Stingaree's rebirth.

Irene Dunne is co-starred with Dix.

Guy Kibbee, who has the role of the philandering husband in the Warner Bros. picture, "Merry Wives of Reno," now showing as added attraction, is a successful farmer during his spare moments between pictures. He has the most famous, as yet, golden-bustian corn in the picture as the most successful patch work colony on his estate near Culver City. Last year the output of the Kibbee corn-patch was 107 dozen ears, which is a lot of corn for a gentleman farmer whose principal business is acting.

POULTRY MARKETING SCHEME IS REJECTED

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—Poultry producers of Saskatchewan and Alberta voted in favor of a scheme to regulate marketing of poultry and eggs under the Marketing Act, Hon. Robert Weir announced yesterday, but the majority was not sufficient to bring the scheme into effect. In Manitoba the scheme was rejected under an adverse vote of 3 to 1. Farmers to the total of 94,237 voted in the three provinces.

SCHOOL ESTIMATES BEYOND THEIR MEANS

NEW WESTMINSTER, March 13
(CP).—The City Council, contending that the 1935 school board estimates, totaling $246,392, were beyond the city's ability to pay, has decided to submit the issue to an arbitration board.

The school board had been asked to reduce its estimates to $230,000, but the council received a letter stating no reduction could be made.

TAP DANCERS STAR IN COMING EMPIRE REVUE

"The Toy Soldiers of Tap Land"
will be featured with the revue,
"Rhapsody in Rhythm," which will open its Victoria engagement at the Empire Theatre tomorrow evening.
This programme will also be presented on Saturday.

This season the toy soldiers are introducing their famous new dance in a very novel manner. They perform the entire number on drums only fourteen inches in diameter.
This dance has been especially popular and has elicited much enthusiastic comment.

The music for this programme will be supplied by Artie Gleason and his Rhythm Cadets. Besides accompanying the various acts, the orchestra will be featured in several of the latest dance hits.

Harry Clark, master of ceremonies, will be remembered by Victoria theatregoers for the prominent part he played with the revue,
"The Penthouse Follies," which was shown at the Empire Theatre last season.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Blacky Is Much Pleased With Himself

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS—

Straight away towards the farm where Bowser the Hound was, flew Blacky the Crow. Every few minutes he would call encouragement to Reddy Fox, who, as you know,
could not travel as fast as did Blacky. In between times Blacky would chuckle to himself. He was mighty pleased with himself, was Blacky.

In the first place, his plan was working beautifully. You know what he was after was to get Reddy Fox over to that farm where Bowser was. He hoped that if Reddy should catch one of those fat hens
the farmer would put Bowser on Reddy's trail. He knew that Reddy would probably return straight home, and Bowser, following Reddy's trail, would find his way home to Farmer Brown's. Of course, it all depended on whether Reddy would

He Was Mighty Pleased With Himself. Was Blacky.

catch one of those fat hens and whether Bowser would be allowed to hunt him. Blacky had a plan for making sure that if Reddy did get one of those hens, the folks in the farmyard would know it.

But what tickled Blacky most was the knowledge that Reddy Fox thought he was fooling Blacky. You remember that Reddy had pretended to be very weak. Blacky knew that Reddy was nothing of the kind. At the very first opportunity Blacky stopped in the top of a tall tree as if to rest. His real reason for stopping was to have a chance to look back. You see, while he was flying he couldn't look behind.

Presently, just as he expected, he saw in the distance a little red speck, and that little red speck was moving very fast indeed. There was nothing weak or feeble in the way that red speck was coming across the show-covered fields.
Blacky chuckled hoarsely.

Nearer and nearer came the red speck, and, of course, the nearer it came the larger it grew. Presently it stopped moving fast. It began to move slowly and stop every once in a while as if to rest. Blacky laughed right out. He knew that Reddy had discovered him sitting in the top of that tall tree and was once more pretending. It was a sort of a game, a game that Blacky thoroughly enjoyed.

As soon as he knew that Reddy had discovered him he once more spread his black wings and started on. The same thing happened over again. In fact, Blacky did not fly far this time before once more waiting. It was great fun to see Reddy suddenly pretend that he was too weak to run. It was such fun that Blacky forgot that he had had no breakfast.

Yes, Blacky the Crow was very much pleased with himself. It looked very much as if he would succeed in helping Bowser the Hound. This pleased him. But it pleased him still more to know that he was fooling clever Reddy the Fox, while Reddy thought that he was the one who was doing the fooling.

Next Story: "Blacky Waits for Reddy."

What Today Means

"PISCES"

If March 14 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 6:45 to 8:45 a.m. from 4:45 to 6:45 p.m. and from 9:45 to 11:45 p.m. If born on this date, you should find it most propitious. Any plans you may have made should terminate successfully. A spirit of good humor probably will stimulate sociability. It should be a very favorable time for the planning of social or business activities. It probably will be a day filled with pleasant as well as unexpected surprises. Business complications are likely to be handled with a great deal more ease than anticipated, if tactful methods are employed. If members of household co-operate on this date, they should experience no difficulty in handling vexing situations, but it is important that they work in unison. If in doubt regarding any matter, it will be wise to consult someone whom you know is qualified to give advice rather than to accept just anyone's suggestion. Married and engaged couples, as well as those entertaining serious sentimental intentions, will display good judgment if they exercise care as to the time and place to say anything of a private nature.

If a woman and March 14 is your birthday, guard against permitting yourself to get into the habit of being inactive or listless. You will be happier and more contented if you have something to occupy your thoughts, as well as time. A business or professional career probably will supply the interest you need to keep your mind occupied, but if you lack this, then it is advisable to develop some hobby. Sketching, illustrating, designing, needlework, teaching or making a collection of some worth-while thing, as well as writing, are suggested as worthy of your consideration. If you will take an interest in household affairs, married life should provide not only all the activity you need to absorb your thoughts, but also all the happiness as well as entertainment you may desire. The child born on March 14, when it is old enough to attend school, may have to be taught the art of applying itself to whatever task it has to do. Mentally bright, as well as capable of doing good work, a lack of concentration may be its one weakness to overcome. If a man and March 14 is your natal day, methodical habits will enable you to get satisfactory results. Hit-and-miss methods, if you are wise, will be avoided. It might be well for you to remember that it is easy to get into the habit of procrastination. Avoid it as you would a plague, if you wish to make a place for yourself in life.

INQUIRY ORDERED AT REQUEST OF LEGION

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—Unemployment in the ranks of ex-service men will be the subject of an investigation by a committee which will recommend to Hon. D. M. Sutherland, Minister of Pensions and National Health, the best means of dealing with this problem. An inquiry was passed yesterday, following representations made by the Canadian Legion.

SPENCERS TAKE LEAD IN PENDRAY CUP SERIES

Bland Shows Class As He Trains for Bout With Wallace

Toronto Contender for Canadian Welterweight Crown Impressive in First Work-Out on Coast—Kayoes One Sparring Partner—Fight Switched to Wednesday at the Arena

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP).—Rugged Tommy Bland, of Toronto, slipped into high gear tonight, belaboring a trio of sparring partners from pillar to post as he opened the heavy part of his training grind prior to next Wednesday night's twelve-round battle with Gordon Wallace, of Vancouver. Knocking out one of his sparring mates and administering a neat lacing to the others, Bland enhanced considerably his prospects of defeating Wallace and earning recognition as Canada's welterweight champion. The match has been billed as for the Canadian title.

Bland uncorked a vicious right hook to the heart that dropped Louis McKinnon, 170-pound Vancouver fighter, in the first of what was to have been two rounds of sparring. The end of the next two rounds found Sonny Griffith, Vancouver welter, almost out on his feet, as he attempted to stand up under Bland's two-fisted attack. The easterner opened his sparring session by giving Harry Marshall, another Vancouver fighter, a neat lesson in boxing.

WALLACE TRAINS
Wallace, who followed Bland into the ring for six rounds, danced and jabbed through four of them with a pair of stablemates, then belted Dick Gordon, Seattle middleweight, about the ring for another couple of rounds.

The Wallace-Bland match, originally scheduled for next Tuesday night, was set back a night, and the scene of action changed from the Auditorium to the larger seating capacity of the Arena. The switch was made owing to the reported heavy advance sale of tickets.

SCHOOL RUGBY SERIES BILLED

Fifteens Will Open Curtis Cup Competition Friday—Schedule Released

School Rugby fifteens will open the 1935 campaign for the Curtis Cup on Friday, March 15, when two fixtures will be played. The trophy is at present held by the Boys' Central School, who will defend the honors in this year's competition.

Donated by P. F. Curtis, ardent follower of the oval ball game, and a former president of the Victoria Rugby Union, the trophy bearing his name has been played for annually for some years, and has been the means of stimulating interest in school Rugby. One of the regulations governing play for this prize cup is that the aggregate weight of any team must not exceed 1,500 pounds. Having in mind the welfare of the smaller boys who are sometimes forgotten in Rugby play, Mr. Curtis has made ample provision for the lighter lads by the regulation.

Schools in Victoria and Oak Bay play for the trophy, with the district winners meeting in the final on April 17. Victoria schools entered include: Oaklands, Boys' Central, South Park, Sir James Douglas, and North Ward. St. Michael's, Monterey and Willows compete in the Oak Bay section.

THE SCHEDULE
The schedule for the Victoria schools, released yesterday, follows:
March 15—Oaklands vs. North Ward; South Park vs. Sir James Douglas; Boys' Central, bye.
March 22—South Park vs. Oaklands; North Ward vs. Boys' Central; Sir James Douglas, bye.
March 29—Boys' Central vs. Sir James Douglas; North Ward vs. South Park; Oaklands, bye.
April 5—Oaklands vs. Boys' Central; North Ward vs. Sir James Douglas; South Park, bye.
April 12—Oaklands vs. Sir James Douglas; South Park vs. Boys' Central; North Ward, bye.
April 17—Final at Oak Bay Park: Victoria vs. Oak Bay.

Tod Morgan Wants To Meet Winner of Bland-Wallace Mix

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP).—Tod Morgan, former world's junior lightweight champion, now aboard an ocean liner between Australia and Honolulu, has cabled a challenge to the winner of the twelve-round Canadian welterweight championship match between Tommy Bland, Toronto, and Gordon Wallace, Vancouver, here next Tuesday.

O.C. Rugby Results

LONDON, March 13 (CP).—In a Rugby Union game today Royal Air Force defeated Civil Services, 32-0. Swinton downed Barrow 32-2 and York defeated Bradford Northern 20-5 in English Rugby League games.

Barney Ross to Met Woods in Seattle April 9

HOTSPRINGS, Ark., March 13 (AP).—Arrangements have been completed for Barney Ross, lightweight and junior welterweight boxing champion of the world, to defend his latter title against Henry "Kid" Woods in Seattle, Wash., April 9, Ross' manager, Arch Winch, announced today.

Ross, completely recovered from a slight attack of neuritis which hampered him in his last bout, went through a strenuous work-out in a gymnasium today and appeared in great condition.

TIGERS NEED OUTFIELDERS STATES BOSS

Mickey Cochrane Says Team Admits Only One Weakness This Year

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer.

LAKELAND, Pa., March 13 (AP).—Unshaken, apparently, by the savage mauling of the Dean boys and the rest of the riotous Cardinal crew in last Fall's world series, Mickey Cochrane's Detroit Tigers, with malice aforethought and kindness in their hearts for no one, are aiming straight for another American League championship. "We got a taste of last year," says the embattled Irishman, "and we liked the taste."

Mickey admits only one weakness, lack of real outfield strength. While he thinks he has enough to go along all right, he tried mightily hard in the off-season to pick up "one more clotting fly-chaser, Leon 'Goose' Goslin, one of baseball's perennial rambling brooks, still rolls steadily along on his bowed legs."

"Go-Go" White is a first-class center fielder, but Pete Fox in right and the reserves of Bob Seide, Gerald Walker and a likely-looking youngster, Chester Morgan, from Beaumont, could stand a little more help.

The rest of the team is the 1934 steam roller.

GOOD MOOD STUFF

Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe, ace of the pitching staff, looks bigger and even faster than ever, and with Tommy Bridges and Elden Auker, more right-handers, provides a first bowling line averaging slightly over twenty-six years of age. Rowe won twenty-four games, Bridges twenty-two and Auker fifteen last year. They figure to be better.

Mickey will carry ten pitchers, probably, through the season. Among them will be a big right-hander, Steve Larkin, with Beaumont last season, and Joe Sullivan, southpaw from Hollywood who won twenty-five games in the Pacific Coast League. Luke Hamlin has a fractured arm and is out for most of the season, and the veteran Vic Sorrell may not stick along.

Distillery Beats Bangor
BELFAST, March 13 (CP).—In a Belfast Cup soccer game, played today, Distillery defeated Bangor, 2 to 1.

Small Crowd Attends Second Day at Bay Meadows Track—Field Announced for $25,000 Added Handicap—Azucar Is Among Starters

SAN MATEO, Cal., March 13 (AP).—With only a small crowd on hand and pari-mutuel play light, John's Birthday won today's feature race at the Bay Meadows track, a six-furlong sprint. The time was 1:51.

DEFEAT MACCABEES IN CLOSELY FOUGHT MIDWEEK GAME, 1-0

E. Borde's Marker Thirty Minutes After Second Half Opened Decides Great Tussle Before Big Crowd—Bays Whip Navy, 5-1—Garrison Take High-Scoring Fixture, 7-4

PENDRAY CUP SERIES

	W	L	D	A	P

Hudson's Bay	4	2	1	18	7
Maccabees	3	2	2	13	10

McBride, A. Murray, McLellan, J. Murray and Newell.

FREE-SCORING GAME
Gaining a 4-2 lead in the initial half, Garrison chalked up a 7-4 victory against the Outer Wharf Rangers in a free-scoring fixture at Work Point Barracks.

Spencers' midweek soccer eleven, defending champions of the Wednesday Football League, yesterday climbed back into undisputed occupation of the top berth in this season's interesting race, when they eked out a 1-0 victory over the Maccabees, before 600 fans at Hey-Avenue. The defeat shunted the clubmen down the ladder to third place, directly behind the Hudson's Bay eleven.

Running up a 5-1 score against the Navy, at Royal Athletic Park, Manager Dick Eaton's green and gold Hudson's Bay squad slipped easily into second place in the Pendray Cup series, a lone point behind the Diamond "S" boys, present leaders.

Their front rank displaying its best form of the season, Garrison trounced the Outer Wharf Rangers, 7-4, at Work Point Barracks. The win marked the second straight for the Tommies, who have finally hit their stride and from now on must be considered a dangerous contender for the coveted silverware.

LONE GOAL DECIDES

Guiding a header past Goalie Harris thirty minutes after the second half had commenced, Edgar Borde, inside forward, produced the lone goal which brought Spencer's through to a neat victory over the Maccabees. It was anybody's game from start to finish, the teams battling hard all the way, with both goals being bombarded frequently during the ninety minutes of fast and aggressive football.

The large crowd was treated to plenty of action as both teams were on their toes all the time, fighting desperately for a victory which meant first place to either eleven. Spencer's played their usual strong, bustling and aggressive game, while the Maccabees, who were slow in getting organized, displayed some smart forward attacks and were unfortunate in not scoring on several occasions.

It was the "breaks" which won the game and Spencer's got them and feasted on them once they got that lone goal. They never fell back on the defence after scoring but kept up a steady stream of attacks which nearly added to their total many times. The game was featured by some clever goal-tending by Norman Stewart and Harris. Both goalies turned in great performances and pulled off some sensational saves, some of which drew applause from the crowded sidelines.

Spencers attacked from the kick-off and Harris made three great stops in the early minutes from a determined front line. The lodge men were doing most of the defending, with the result that their backs and halves had their work cut out for them. When the Maccabees started to click they had Spencer's back division worried several times. Twice Don Newell beat his man and centred across the goalmouth, but there was nobody there to complete the job. Several corners were also wasted, while Fieldhouse had extremely hard-luck twice in as many minutes when his pile-driving shot rocked the framework, and then he smashed another against the post. Both drives had the goalies well-beaten.

Play swung up and down the field at a fast pace and both goalies were called upon to make brilliant saves to keep their nets clear. The teams fought through a scoreless first half. As the second season opened, Lloyd Cann dropped back to full-back and Rod McMillan went up to left wing for Spencer's. Twice in the first five minutes, Stewart made two lovely saves, one he just got his fingers to and the other he went in the air to stop. McBride nearly beat him the first time and McLellan the second. During a fast break-away attack, McMillan was injured when he collided with the upright during a pile-up in the mouth of the Maccabees' goal.

BORDE REGISTERS

The game was even, with both goalies being subjected to close calls, until Borde broke the scoreless argument after thirty minutes. The goal came from Bissell's high lob which dropped a few feet from the goal line. Borde just managed to get his head to it and the ball went past Goalie Harris, who had little chance to save. After the tally, Fieldhouse went to centre and McLellan dropped back for the Maccabees. However, Spencer's held the lodgement at bay, and walked off the field fifteen minutes later with a sweet victory and premier berth as well.

McMillan refereed, and teams follow:
Spencers—Stewartson; Munro; McMillan, L. Bradley, Bissell, D. Bradley; Brown, Borde, Clarke, Cann and Luxton.
Maccabees—Harris; T. Graves; Speller; Emery; Fieldhouse, Hill.

WATSON SCORES

With the resumption of play the Rangers fought with determination, and Watson sliced the Garrison's lead when he netted his second goal of the match early in the final stanza.

Edwards, Garrison inside left, who netted three of the seven goals scored by the soldier eleven, put the Tommies two goals up when he beat Eastwood from close range. Rangers retaliated a few minutes later when Davidson scored, making the count 5-4 in favor of the eventual winners.

Taking the upper hand again, the Garrison ran in two markers near the close of the match, with Miller and Edwards doing the scoring.

Alcock refereed. Teams follow:
Garrison—Glendenning, Wilkinson, Worswick, Stewart, Evans, Pockock, McAllister, Miller, Cook, Edwards and S. Biehard.

Outer Wharf Rangers—Eastwood, White, Gelling, Roskamp, McConnell, Thame, Belford, Anderson, Watson, Davidson and Bourne.

BAYS BEAT NAVY

Holding a 2-0 advantage as the first half ended, Hudson's Bay defeated the Navy, 5-1, in a mediocre exhibition at the Royal Athletic Park.

Replay for the greater part of the match, a game but inexperienced sailor eleven fought every inch of the way against the Bays, who, with victory to their credit, were not particularly impressive.

"Tubby" Stevens garnered the first goal of the match when he literally walked the ball into the sailor net after twenty minutes of play. The second and final marker of this stanza, came five minutes before half-time, with Stevens again being responsible.

Navy made one really dangerous attack in this half, and but for a sensational save by Baxter of a good shot by McCuaig, would have scored. The shot had goal written all over it, but the Hudson's Bay net-minder dived along the mouth of his goal and saved in spectacular fashion.

Goals by Harold Sage, Wally Stewart and "Tubby" Stevens, in the final half, brought the Bays' total to five markers. Brown, playing inside right for the Navy, saved a whitewash when he beat Baxter at close range well on in the game.

Shrimpton refereed. The teams: Hudson's Bay—Baxter, O'Connell, O'Neil, Watt, Kennedy, Oakman, Fish, Brown, Stevens, Sage and Stewart.

Navy—Mundie, Healey, Kennedy, Mann, Hubbard, Hutton, Glave, McCuaig, Watt, Brown and Sinclair.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

The Wall of Bones—Philadelphia in Asia Minor was the site of one of the Seven Churches of the Apocalypse. Built by King Philadelphia of Egypt, it was named after him, the city of "Brotherly Love." It had a legendary reputation of invincibility, and repeatedly fought off raids by Sultan Bajazet I whose nickname was "Lightning."

The news of the successful resistance offered by the Christian City reached the Sultan at the same time that he was informed of the killing of his son by Tamerlane's Tartars. In a bitter determination to avenge it, Bajazet besieged the city with a large army, took it by storm, and massacred all the inhabitants. The bones of the victims were ground and cemented and erected into a wall which stands to this day. A few years ago an American Consul traveling in Lydia took some samples of the wall which he analyzed and found to be of the exact gruesome consistency as reported.

LOCAL CAGERS TAKE BIG LEADS IN PLAY-OFFS

Dealats, Burnetts Trounce Nanaimo Teams With Ease

Former Whips Mosquito Club in Intermediate "A" Series, 40-18, While Local Girls Register 65-9 Victory Over Up-Islanders—Chinese Beat Beavers in Replayed Fixture, 38-32

Dealats, intermediate "A" boys cagers, and Burnetts, intermediate "B" girls' quintette, gained a stranglehold on the Vancouver Island basketball championships in their respective divisions, yesterday evening at the Victoria High School gymnasium, when they scored impressive victories over visiting Nanaimo squads. Dealats defeated Mosquito Club five, 40-18, in the first game of the home-and-home series, while Bob Whyte's Burnetts snowed the visiting Nanaimo High School quintette under a 65-9 defeat as they opened their 1934-35 campaign for the Island title.

Playing championship basketball from the first foot of the referee's whistle, a clever Chinese Students intermediate "B" boys' quintette defeated the Beavers, 38-32, in a replayed Sunday School Basketball League play-off fixture. The victory gave the students the city championship and the right to meet Duncan in the Vancouver Island play-downs.

With Doreen Beere and Ely Miles, clever and sharpshooting forwards, scoring thirty-one and twenty points, respectively, Burnetts ran through the Nanaimo High School quintette to score at will. The locals went out in front in the first few minutes of the fixture, and the outcome was soon a foregone conclusion.

RAGGED TUGGLE
Fighting in defence of the Vancouver Island championship they annexed last year, Dealats, intermediate "A" boys' city champions, defeated the visiting Nanaimo club in a ragged exhibition. The locals were the better of the two teams and deserving of victory, but failed to show the kind of form exhibited in previous fixtures at the Victoria High School Gymnasium.

Nanaimo checked closely all of the way and a number of fouls were called. The players roughed things

Letters to the Editor

MAKES SUGGESTION

To the Sports Editor:

Sir.—Re your comments in the March 13 issue on Victoria United and the Connought Cup, may I put forward the following suggestion:

That Victoria United or the four ding clubs enter two teams in that competition, an "A" and "B" team, or what they may decide to name them. Select the best players all on one team and the next best players in the other; then arrange a series of matches between those teams before the cup ties commence. This will give both teams good practice, the fans attractive matches, and enable the players to further develop their knowledge of each other's play. Also, it may improve our chances of winning the cup.

This may be published and given to the clubs for consideration, if so desired.

C. D. ATKINSON.

O'BRIAN WILL OPPOSE LARGE IN MAT BOUT

Signed for One Half of Double Main Event of Squirrm Card

Johnny La Rue, former OREGONIAN University student and one of the most popular wrestlers to appear at the Tillicum gymnasium, is coming back, this time to meet "Bull Moose" O'Brian, rugged New Yorker, in one half of the double main event of Saturday evening's squirm card.

The match is billed to go six ten-minute rounds, or the best two out of three falls.

A favorite with local fans because of his clean, scientific wrestling, La Rue has shown here on a number of occasions and has yet to taste defeat. He has met and defeated the rugged and colorful Abdel Khan, bewhiskered Afghan matman, and will be facing an equally rough opponent when he climbs over the ropes to battle O'Brian.

SCISSORS EXPERT
La Rue specializes on the scissors hold, something that O'Brian, who has plenty of weight and no girlish figure, simply detests, and when the Oklahoman gets his lanky limbs around O'Brian's mid-section the New Yorker will receive plenty of punishment.

A past master in the art of punching, butting, kicking and in fact using many tricks not used in the best of grappling circles, O'Brian, rugged New Yorker, is not likely to toy with the clever Oklahoman. Smart, clever grappling does not seem to be included in the O'Brian repertoire, but the husky mat man from the sidewalks of Manhattan has plenty of other punishing offensives that he simply delights to use.

With La Rue, Victoria's wrestling hero and one of the mat game's cleanest wrestlers opposing "Bull Moose" O'Brian, who uses rough tactics, there should be plenty of excitement in this mix.

With one portion of the double bill assured, Promoter Fred Richardson is now busy lining up the remainder of what promises to be another bang-up card.

Hoyle-Brown Drops Vancouver Island Play-Off Fixture

PORT ALBERNI, March 13. Staging a determined second-half rally, after trailing a 23-16 score at the end of the initial canto, a fighting Port Alberni men's senior "B" cage quintette tonight defeated the visiting Hoyle-Brown (Victoria) squad, 38-36, in the first game of the home-and-home series for the Vancouver Island championship. The visitors looked their best in a slow first half and gained a seven-point lead as the session ended. In the final canto, Port Alberni pepped things up in great fashion, and, after trailing for the better part of this session, finally came through with a two-point margin of victory.

But the Wests, like all our clubs, stand badly in need of a centre forward who can seize on every opportunity. They should have had the

DARK AS EGYPT

The simile "Dark as Egypt" is used today almost invariably in a figurative sense. However, the inspiration for this phrase is in a plague of real darkness which befell the Egyptians, as related in Exodus x, 21:

"And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, and there shall be darkness over the land of Egypt, and it shall be a darkness of the night.

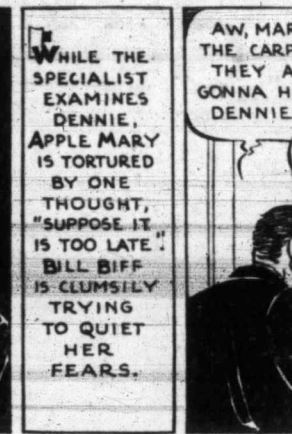

"And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

"They saw not one another, neither did they rise, any one from his place, for three days."

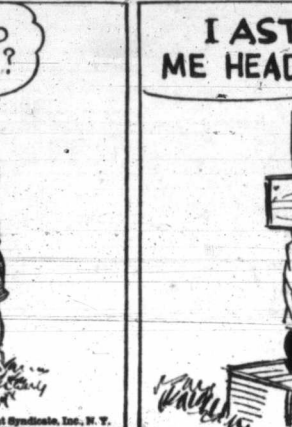

The plague of darkness was one of a number of punishments which, according to the Bible, were visited upon Egypt by the Lord till the Israelites were emancipated.

NOT IN FAVOR OF CHANGING CLOCK

Postmaster George H. Gardiner
Says Measure Would Interfere With Mail Carriers Here

Opposition to daylight-saving time contemplated for Victoria this Summer by the City Council continues to pile up. George Gardiner, postmaster, yesterday addressed the following letter to Mayor Leeming:

"With daylight saving in operation, it is not likely that the C.P.R. schedules will be changed and steamers will continue to reach Victoria on standard time as at present. This would mean that carriers would not be able to get started on their rounds until nearly 9 a.m. daylight-saving time. The same difficulty would be encountered as regards the 1:15 p.m. mails from Seattle and the afternoon mails from Vancouver. It is respectfully asked that consideration be given to the matter of mail service when the question is again brought before the council."

The Lower Island Softball Association and the Victoria United Football Club have both written to the mayor supporting daylight saving.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

MAN WILL BE MADE READY FOR ALL THE CHANGES OF LIFE

As we see the fair or red hair, the blue or brown eyes, the tall or short stature, the quiet or stormy disposition of the parent handed down to the child, we cannot but feel that heredity has a great deal to do with the way we live our lives.

And yet welfare workers, physicians dealing with "nervous" patients, research workers on mental subjects, tell us from their vast experience that environment—circumstances, opportunities or lack of them, home, business, school—all have much to do with the way we live our lives.

It would appear, however, that as humans we have been overlooking processes that are going on within us that have nothing to do with heredity. Dr. G. H. Parker, professor of physiology at Harvard, reports that a chemical substance is produced in fishes which changes their color to that of their surroundings, and that this chemical substance is produced by the nerves and not by the will of the fish to change its color. In other words, something of which the fish is not conscious enables it to change its color. Thus the fish is not likely to be seen by an enemy that might attack it, or by some smaller animal that it wishes to secure for food.

Speaking further about this "unconscious" power of animals, Dr. William A. White, superintendent of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, says "Man has unexplored, unknown or unmeasured possibilities that will enable him to adjust himself to any eventualities and will make possible all the progress that is latent—existing but unsolved—in the present discoveries of science. While there are some difficulties between the races of mankind, they are very small and will be swept away as all these new discoveries are made use of by mankind generally." And it is our unconscious mind, our organ of vast unused possibilities, in which these developments for man's progress are going on.

The thought, then, is that while heredity is important, nevertheless it has equipped us only to meet what our forefathers have met in life. But within us are possibilities of which we are unconscious that will enable us to meet and make use of all the new discoveries of science.

Surely, no matter what our religion, we can look confidently into the future, knowing that there is a "friendly force" within us or watching our lives.

DISCUSSES FEAR AND MORAL FORCE

"Fear and Moral Force" was the subject of an interesting talk given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bonavia, Vining Street, by W. B. Pease, the meeting being under the auspices of the local anti-vivisection society. Vivisection, the speaker alleged, had become powerful through creating fear of disease in the minds of the people. Power so gained was an evil influence and must be strenuously resisted, and fear was simply cowardice, he stated.

It was considered that great damage has been done to the healing art by vivisectional methods. Mr. Pease exhorted those present to resist fear and exercise their moral force in order to achieve reform. He pointed to the long periods of labor necessary to abolish slavery and to institute voting by ballot, and urged all to hold fast, cast out fear and accomplish the aims for which anti-vivisectionists were striving.

After serving refreshments, Mrs. A. W. Stokes, accompanied by Mrs. G. Marshall, delighted those present with several vocal solos. Votes of thanks were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bonavia for their generous hospitality and to all who had assisted in the success of the meeting.

THE LOVE FLIGHT

CHAPTER XVI

Some imp of mischief stirred within Anne. She would allow Craig Braden to drop her at Bois Joli—at the servants' entrance. There would be a choice bit for the scandal scribblers. The great Craig Braden dropping his young lady at the servants' entrance. He'd loathe that. And it would be the end of his "laying in wait" for her. She laughed, inwardly, and walked with him to the car.

"Do you know the shore place called Bois Joli?" she asked while he was handing her in.

"Who doesn't?" he said. "I owe you an apology, Craig. Anne said, when they were in the open road, 'for that night at Bruno's, I apologize, but I can't explain. I don't know. It was an impulse, an urge to get away. I had to go. I couldn't stay. I couldn't bear it another minute.' 'Must have been a fit of nerves,' he said. It was his explanation of her to himself, a sop to his own vanity. Women had nerves. You couldn't blame her, poor kid, all that mess about her father; only a paltry few hundred dollars left, he'd found out. 'I wish you'd told me. We could have avoided all this.' All this? But she didn't want to avoid all this. She would this to be. She would this for her life, her being.

"There was nothing to tell, nothing I would change." She would have to shoot straight, have to hit hard. People like Craig Braden needed hard hitting before they'd let loose of what they wanted; what they thought they wanted.

"There must be." His sallowness darkened, his chin where the dark stubble showed through the sallowness, hardened. "You gave me to understand you cared. You've got to admit, Anne, you gave me to understand there could be more between us than just—friendship."

Trapped again. He had trapped her again. Why shouldn't he have understood—there was to be more between them? Hadn't she worked for that, schemed for it? Hadn't she meant to be everything to him? Everything! To this stranger, the very nearness of whom sickened her. She had meant to marry him, knowing that his very presence sickened her! This thought sent her shuddering back into a dark corner of her soul.

"I know," she said. "It was a mistake. I've tried to right it." He was taking the long way round to Bois Joli. Oh, why hadn't he taken the short way? She wanted to be out of the car, away from him, away from the ghost of the scheming thing that had been her. She'd ask him to drop her a distance from Bois Joli. Spare him the servants' entrance. Some one would be sure to be about and see her driven in the best car of a Craig Braden. Backstairs would buzz. Suppose Carl should see her—she'd rather he didn't.

"You may drop me at the next corner," she said. "It's only a little way from Bois Joli."

Craig Braden stepped on the gas. "I'm not dropping you." His dark jaws snapped.

As the car slurred a corner and leaped toward the open country, Anne hunched low into the seat, away from Craig.

The situation was too ridiculous. Craig Braden a kidnapper! Craig Braden kidnapping a servant girl and running away with her in his best car. What did he mean to do? Where was he going? They'd be bound to get some place, some time, and then there would be an end to it.

Madame! Madame would be expecting her, with the evening wraps. If she failed to appear, failed even to send some message that she could not appear—maids were not paid to participate in ridiculous kidnapping episodes with vain-glorious men. She'd been causing Madame too much annoyance. It couldn't go on. Even Madame's indulgence must reach a limit. She must find a way to get back to Bois Joli before her tardiness was noted.

Anne stole a glance at Craig Braden. The hardness along the line of his dark jaw had relaxed ever so little. He was settling down to a steady pace of seventy-five miles an hour.

"What do you propose to do?" she asked, raising her voice above the hum of the motor, the rush of the wind.

"We're going to Jacksonport, he shot back. "We'll be married there. We may have to wait—something about registering intentions. We can register and come back when the times up."

"I wish you wouldn't drive so fast," she complained. "It's giving me a frightful headache." He gave her a surprised look, saw she appeared as calm as she sounded, and dropped his speed to sixty. He had expected a struggle, maybe even a physical struggle before he had his way. Cave man stuff. Women liked it, begged for it. Even high-strung fine-fibered women like Anne Austin. Well, he was prepared to give her as much as she compelled him to use. And here was she, sitting docile beside him, tame as a white rabbit. You never could figure women.

They rode on in silence. The blood sang through his veins. He felt very much the conquering hero, the cave man come home from the wars with his woman. This woman might have put up a bit of a struggle though, just to keep her part of the game going. Too swift surrender took away the tang of victory. He was making an ass of himself—but she was worth it. God, she was worth it!

"Head better?" he asked. The silence was beginning to be oppressive.

"It doesn't matter," she said, and turned away from him.

"I had to do it, Anne," he said, dropping to fifty. "I had to bring you to your senses. You were ruining your life, and mine, too. You're no more fit for work than a race horse is fit to pull a plough."

"I like the plough."

"If you must work, you can work for me. I'll pay you well. Got your first week's wages in my pocket now. It's a set of rubies I picked up in Europe. They belonged to a Princess of Islam. They'll become you—better than a cap and apron."

"I'm afraid I couldn't possibly earn them." She spoke quietly, almost indifferently. As though she were quiet, and all the time her mind was darting, seeking a chink, a crevice to dart through to safety. Now her mind listened. Her whole body listened, strained for a sound. Yes, there it was again, no more than a whisper. Coming from behind—a low whisper, the echo of a whisper. He'd hear it too. She must keep him from hearing it, shut out the whisper until it had become a voice.

"My head is quite clear, now," she said. "You may speed up if you like."

He smiled down at her, knowingly, triumphantly. This was one on him. His woman had taken from the wars was actually urging him to hurry her to his cave. She had been playing a game with him then. She had meant him to have her all the time.

Twice, three times Anne, feigning to fasten her rioting hair—her hat had been blown away in the first swift rush of their going—glanced behind. The whisper was real. It was not a figment of her darting mind. Along the white ribbon of road it was materializing—no more than a blur as yet, but it was there. When she looked again she could distinguish the outlines of a car—a car coming toward them, closing the distance slowly, surely.

Anne's mind was straining, scheming to drown the sound of the oncoming car. If she'd talk, focus his attention on what she was saying, he might not hear it until it was close behind them.

"I've never been out this way—certainly I didn't expect it would be like this when I did come—your behavior so melodramatically, Craig—swooping me up—you can't mean to go through with it of course—you're only trying to be funny."

Anne, rattling on feverishly, not knowing what she was saying, not caring except that her voice was shutting out that other sound. It must be very close now—she tossed the hair out of her eyes, managing to turn her head for a glimpse of the road. The car had caught them, was only a little way behind, near enough for whoever was in it to see anything that might happen in the road ahead.

"Slow down, please!" She broke off in the middle of her rattling conversation to rap out the command.

"I thought you said you're head was better," Braden said, suspicion awakened by the new tone of authority.

"My head is perfectly all right, thanks. Do as I say. There's a car behind us. It's been following us for some time, letting you give it the pace. Just now it's very close—close enough for whoever's in it to see any signals I give. Slow down and stop. I'll pretend we've lost the road—there's something wrong with the engine and ask the way to Palm Beach. Then you turn round and head the other way. I'll ask them to wait until we have a start to see if our engine works. Don't waste time."

A quick glance over his shoulder.

A smothered oath, then: "The hell I will! This car can do a hundred and she's going to do it."

"Not with me fighting you. You won't be able to keep it on the road. I'll claw your hands from the wheel—I'll kick and bite and scratch and scream—" She'd give him a sample of what she meant to do. Savagely she tore his hand, nearest her, free of the wheel. The car swerved. He fought her off, righted it again.

Now she was half standing, clinging to the side.

"Sit down!" he shouted. "You'll be thrown out on your head."

"One more second," she had managed to squirm around so she was holding to the back of the seat, facing the car behind, "then I'll wave my arms and scream for help."

She knew that he was weighing his chances of fending her off or of holding her down with one arm while he shot the speedometer to a hundred. But first he must drag her back from the seat, and before he could manage to do that she would have attracted the attention of those in the other car by her screams and struggling. They'd be sure to take up the chase and spread the alarm. Radio messages would go flashing over wires and the network of the law would be spread for him wherever he might go. Sweet stuff for the news columns! Craig Braden under arrest for abducting a girl! Caught red-handed. Not even his money was enough to silence so sweet a story. He'd be the joke of the season, the joke of the year.

He swerved to the side of the road, slammed on the brakes. The car ground to a stop. The car behind shot back, slowed, stopped, then began backing until it was alongside.
